

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO ACCEPT FROM ARGENTINE, BRAZIL AND CHILE FORMAL OFFER TO ACT AS INTERMEDIARIES IN PRESENT MEXICAN SITUATION

THERE WILL BE NO CESSATION OF PREPARATIONS BY THE ARMY AND NAVY FOR FUTURE EMERGENCIES AND NO ORDERS ISSUED CHANGING PLANS

No Further Steps Will Be Taken, However, to Secure Reparation for the Indignities Which Gave Rise to Present Situation While Effort Is Being Made to Bring About a Settlement Through Diplomacy—Offer South American Countries Contemplates Settlement by Elimination of Huerta—Wilson Feels It the Duty of Government to Avail Itself of Offer.

ENVOYS MUST AWAIT WORD FROM HUERTA BEFORE ACTING.

Washington, April 25.—The three South American envoys who proposed the intermediation to the United States laid before their conferees the notes that had passed between them and the American government. They explained their plans as far as they have developed and a general discussion of the matter was had.

It was decided nothing further could be done here until some reply had been received by the Spanish ambassador from Mexico City as to the attitude of General Huerta toward their proposals. When this is received the Latin-American diplomatic corps probably will be consulted as to further steps.

Secretaries Garrison and Daniels had a long conference with the president tonight. They declined to discuss its nature. Asked what effect the intermediation plan would have on the war departments activities, Secretary Garrison said there was no immediate prospect of any important army orders being issued and that so far as the army was concerned, the situation would probably remain in "status quo" until the mediation plan developed further.

Secretary Daniels said the principal work of the navy would be to care for American refugees.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Pan-American diplomacy tonight made its first attempt to solve the Mexican crisis by peaceful negotiation. The United States government accepted from Argentina, Brazil, and Chile, a formal offer to act as intermediaries in the present situation but reservedly pointed out that any act of aggression by the military forces or hostile demonstrations toward Americans might upset hopes of immediate peace.

Coincidentally with the acceptance of the offer of mediation administration officials announced there would be no cessation of preparations by the army and navy for future emergencies and no orders would be issued to the naval forces now at Vera Cruz or the ships at sea changing original plans. No further steps, however, to secure reparation for the indignities which gave rise to the present situation will be made to bring about a settlement through diplomacy.

Although the offer made by the three South American countries did not reveal their plans, it was learned they contemplate a broad settlement of the Mexican problem through the elimination of Huerta upon which the United States has insisted from the beginning. Notification of the offer of intermediation was sent not only to the diplomatic representatives of Argentina, Brazil, and Chile in Mexico City, but to General Carranza and the constitutionalists in northern Mexico. President Wilson summoned Senators Stone, Shively, Lodge of the senate foreign relations committee and Chairman Flood and Representative Cooper of the house committee on foreign affairs to discuss the new turn in events—the first ray of hope after a day of worry and anxiety over the scores of Americans held up in their flight from the Mexican capital.

The text of the offer made by the Brazilian ambassador and the ministers from Argentina and Chile and the reply of the American government transmitted by Secretary Bryan in person to the three diplomats late today is as follows:

"Mr. Secretary of State: "With the purpose of subserving the interest of peace and civilization in our continent and with the earnest desire to prevent any further bloodshed to the prejudice of the cordiality and union which have always surrounded the relations of the governments and the people of America, we, the plenipotentiaries of Brazil, Argentina and Chile, duly authorized hereto, have the honor to tender to Your Excellency's government our good offices for the peaceful and friendly settlement of the conflict between the United States and Mexico. "This offer puts in due form the suggestions which we have had occasion to offer heretofore on this subject to the secretary to whom we renew the assurances of our highest and most distinguished consideration. (Signed) "D. Dagama. "R. S. Naon. "Eduardo Suarez Mujica."

President Wilson's Reply. The offer was formally submitted by the three South American envoys to Secretary Bryan and laid before the president. The reply of the president made through the secretary of state to the diplomatic representatives was as follows:

"The government of the United States is deeply sensible of the friendliness the good feeling and the generous concern for the peace and welfare of America manifested in the joint note just received from your sixty days. The most important happenings of the day were:

American Consul Canada's report that Americans were being detained in Mexico City because it was believed there that Mexicans were restrained by Americans from Vera Cruz. Immediate steps were taken through the British embassy here and the British legation in Mexico City to correct the impression prevailing in the Mexican capital. Unconfirmed reports of the killing of four Americans in Mexico City were called to the attention of the Brazilian embassy here with the request that its legation in Mexico City now looking after American interests there, seek verification of them. Consul Canada at Vera Cruz sent reports of anti-American demonstrations and general unrest in Mexico City. He heard that 125 Americans were put off a train in Pachuca by the train crew but that another train had gone out from Mexico City to assist them in continuing their journey to Vera Cruz. Secretary Garrison announced he had issued orders for any further troop movements and that army officers were to use their own discretion in protecting international bridges on the border.

Ordered Back to Hamburg. The German Vessel Ypiranga, whose consignment of war munitions for Huerta caused the United States peremptorily to seize the Vera Cruz customs house was ordered back to Hamburg, Germany, without landing her cargo.

The navy department dispatched vessels up and down the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of Mexico to take away American consuls and refugees generally. Between 3,000 and 3,500 refugees already have been protected or are enroute to the United States. Secretary Bryan said today Charge O'Shaughnessy probably would leave for the United States on the first available ship. Lieut. General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, senior officer commanding the army in the Spanish-American war called on Secretary Garrison and General Wood and it is understood offered his services should war be declared. It was announced today that the interests of the Mexican embassy here and her consulates throughout the country would be looked after by the Spanish embassy and consulates.

Not Sanguine of Success of Plan. From those at tonight's white house conference it was learned that while the president was not sanguine of the success of the intermediation plan, he felt it to be the duty of the American government to avail itself of the offer of the three great South American countries. It was suggested that interim of negotiations even though they might be unsuccessful, might serve to repress anti-American outbursts and afford an opportunity for Americans to depart from Mexico.

The president had the subject under consideration most of the day with Secretary Bryan and other members of the cabinet. The senators and representatives declined to be quoted about the new phase of the situation but those who discussed it believed it was right for the United States to accept good offices though not agreeing in advance to any cessation of its preparations for emergencies.

The feature of the plan which some of the president's visitors lauded was the fact that the United States was joining hands with three big nations of this hemisphere emphasizing Pan-American solidarity and a principle of the Monroe doctrine and at the same time showing to Central and South America as a whole the peaceful intentions of the American government. The fact that Argentina, Brazil and Chile have stood with the United States in refusing to recognize the Huerta government is an element in the situation which rose conspicuously to the front as discussion of the new situation turned official circles for the moment at least from thoughts of war to those of peace. It was generally realized that the task of the three countries would be difficult for they have been dealing with Huerta only as a de facto ruler and could not become involved in steps of formal recognition any more than could the United States in its refusal to sign a written protocol for the adjustment of the incidents at Tampico and the demand for a salute to the American flag.

Many Clamor for War. Many members of congress are clamoring for a more aggressive course even to a declaration of war. Some cabinet members favor a drastic course to end the anarchical conditions in the southern republic, while others think much can be accomplished by persuading the constitutionalists to remain neutral. Developments of the day centered chiefly in the receipt of meagre reports about the American refugees, but important preparations for a long occupation of Vera Cruz were made. A postal agency is to be established there for the care of mail and supply ships are being rushed to Vera Cruz carrying provisions for

GOV. AMMONS ASKS FOR FEDERAL TROOPS

COLORADO NEEDS TROOPS AT ONCE TO COMPOSE STRIKE SITUATION

Exchange of Shots at Trinidad County Jail is Only Incident of the Night to Disturb Truce Agreed Upon by Warring Forces in Colorado Coal Fields.

BULLETIN. Denver, Colo., April 25.—A proclamation calling the state legislature of Colorado into special session to consider matters pertaining to the strike situation in the Southern and Northern portions of the state was signed by Governor Ammons shortly before mid-night. The session is called for May 4th.

TRINIDAD, Colo., April 25.—An exchange of shots at the county jail in which a striker named Jesus Barajas was shot through the right side, caused a flurry of excitement in Trinidad tonight and added to the already tense situation. A striker named Gonzales was arrested by the force of deputies guarding the jail. The strikers' wound was not considered serious.

The shooting was the only incident of the night to disturb the truce agreed upon late today at a conference between union leaders and Adjutant General Chase at which each side promised to refrain from violence.

Asks for Federal Troops. Denver, April 25.—Governor Ammons tonight at 9 o'clock by wire requested President Wilson to "send federal troops into Colorado immediately" to compose the strike situation.

Governor Ammons determined to ask President Wilson directly for federal troops, rather than through the congressional channels after an all-day session with women of the state who declared that they would not leave the state house until the governor had complied with their demands that federal troops be asked for from the president himself.

The delegation declared they were not in sympathy with either of the warring factions in Colorado and that they were urging the governor to call for federal aid as the only effective aid of putting down the strike and rioting in the state.

Telegram to President. The telegram which the governor caused to be sent to the president followed:

"To His Excellency, Woodrow Wilson, "President of the United States, "Washington, D. C. "Conditions in this state compel me to request of you that federal troops be sent immediately into the state of Colorado for the following reasons:

"Since Sept. 23rd, 1913, there has been a general strike of coal miners throughout the major portion of the state of Colorado. The situation in the southern portion of the state, in the Trinidad district, became so critical because of disorder beyond the ability of local authorities to control, that on October 26th, 1913, the state militia was called into service and sent into the field. One district which was particularly affected with disorder was approximately miles in length and the situation demanded all the militia it was possible to secure. About one month ago the trouble having apparently abated, the troops were gradually withdrawn until only a small number remained in the trouble district. Thereupon the conditions immediately became greatly aggravated, a vast amount of property, amounting to tens of dollars was destroyed, many lives were lost and we were compelled to return immediately as many militia as was possible. Armed in open defiance of law, men are congregating from various portions of the state in the affected district. There are probably three thousand men armed in open insurrection.

"I have available 650 militiamen without ability materially to increase this number. The situation has passed beyond the ability of the state to control. "This domestic violence is the result of an industrial controversy between inter-state organizations with headquarters outside of the state of Colorado.

"I therefore urgently request that you send forthwith to Ludlow, Colorado, and to such other portions of the state as the commanding officer may deem necessary not less than one battalion of infantry and one troop of cavalry.

"The legislature of this state cannot be convened in time to meet this emergency and I therefore have the honor to make this request, as governor of the state, pursuant to section four, article four, of the constitution of the United States. (Signed) "Elias M. Ammons."

CONDITION IS CRITICAL.

London, April 25.—The condition of Victor Herbert, the composer, who was operated on this morning for appendicitis, was reported to be critical tonight.

Mr. Herbert suddenly became very ill while being shown through Buckingham Palace on Wednesday. The physicians who were called in to attend him decided on Friday he became so much worse than an operation was deemed imperative. His wife and daughter are here.

Vienna, April 25.—The official bulletin on the condition of Emperor Francis Joseph issued tonight says: "The catarrhal symptoms are unchanged; appetite and heart action good."

BADGER EXTENDING LINES BEYOND CITY

Admiral Extending Lines of Bluejackets Further Beyond Vera Cruz

SEE NO MEXICAN FORCES

Advancing Americans Do Not Expect to Meet Any Mexicans in Immediate Future

MEXICANS COME IN FOR FOOD

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Admiral Badger reported tonight from Vera Cruz as was extending his lines of bluejackets and marines further beyond the city. The battalion of marines from the South Carolina are well entrenched 2½ miles west of the city.

No contact had been had with the Mexican forces and none was expected in the immediate future.

Admiral Badger's telegram, dated 5 p. m. Saturday said:

"Last night's firing desultory and continued for considerably period. "One private slightly wounded in fore-arm. Name not yet ascertained. Will be reported later. Fletcher continuing efforts have influential citizens unite and arrange for conduct of municipal affairs by people themselves. Quite certain former officials will not resume office under present conditions but possibly citizens committee can be formed to influence city's affairs along lines of law and order and create confidence among inhabitants. Meeting of this kind will be held this afternoon. Question of food and water still giving anxiety but up to present time no actual distress. Seems probable however that ultimately government will have to ration poorer classes of inhabitants. Customs house is open and vessels ready to discharge but much difficulty being experienced obtaining labor.

"Extending line of bluejackets and marines about two miles further into country today. South Carolina battalion well entrenched about two and one half miles from center of city. No contact has been made with Mexican forces and no attack expected at present. Mississippi's marines landed this morning. This morning aeroplane made flight over harbor. Will make another flight this afternoon. Ship's bands giving concerts ashore.

"Hawaiian-American steamers reported sailed from Puerto, Mexico ten a. m., Saturday for Vera Cruz with about 200 refugees. Will transfer them to Steamer Mexico and sail soon as reasonably filled that vessel will proceed New Orleans, land refugees and return.

"Jason and Pauling now at Tuxpam collecting refugees that region. Rear-Admiral Craddock and commanding officers British ships Hermione at Tampico and Berwick at Puerto, Mexico have been untiring in efforts to collect and forward American refugee ships. These services have been of greatest value. Further offers continuation these kindly efforts still being made."

The navy department tonight received word that the American consulate at Mazatlan had been stoned by a mob yesterday. Other and American demonstration occurred there.

After Mexican Snipers.

Vera Cruz, April 25.—The most drastic treatment possible will be administered to Mexican snipers caught operating at night. At a staff conference today the question of this kind of shooting was discussed and it was decided the most severe measures would be the only simple and quick solution.

Lieut. Col. T. P. Kane, commanding 500 marines, with two hydro-aeroplanes, was ordered to advance today to the source of the water supply at Tepala, nine miles up the river. The supply has been shut off and it is reported that General Maas' men have been seeking to damage the pumps. The water supply here however is adequate for all purposes and there is little danger of contamination. It is probable that navy aeroplanes will scout in advance of the train bearing the marines.

A scouting squad advanced two miles inland today and endeavored to repair the telegraph lines in Mexico City. The scouts encountered hundreds of Mexicans coming in from miles around. They carried baskets and expected to obtain food from the Americans. A rumor had gone out that the American forces were feeding everybody who applied and hundreds thronged about headquarters this morning. Three aeroplanes arrived on the battleship Mississippi today. The Mississippi came from Pensacola with 600 marines.

To Exterminate Snipers. Vera Cruz, April 25.—By the effective method of extermination, sniping by Mexicans, which has been responsible for the killing or wounding of many Americans, is to be stopped. The foreign consuls called today in a body at military headquarters and urged the adoption of some measures that would quickly restore complete tranquility and promising their co-operation or at least their moral support.

AMERICAN CONSULAR AGENT THREATENED

MOB OF REBELS CONGREGATES ABOUT AND THREATENS CONSULATE

Raid of Armed Mexicans on U. S. Side of Border Occurs East of Nogales When Mexicans Rob Mining Camps Near Border—Americans From Nogales Are in Pursuit—Consul Montague Starts Overland for Border.

NOGALES, Ariz., April 25.—Hostile acts committed by irresponsible rebels against Americans in various parts of the interior of northwestern Mexico became such today as to increase apprehension that the demonstrations might assume more serious aspects.

C. L. Montague, American consular agent at Cananea, a rich copper mining town fifty-five miles south of Naco, Arizona, telegraphed to Consul Frederick Simpich at five o'clock this evening a mob of rebels was congregating about the consulate and speeches threatening Americans were being made.

All the Americans except Montague however, had reached the border safely. Montague had remained to pack up the consulate archives. His despatch read:

"Am now in office attempting to pack up archives. Very large mob now congregating on all sides of the consulate. Strong speeches being made against Americans. Some advocate breaking into consulate, others to take down American flag. I have decided not to take down the flag until 5:30, the usual time, so as not to create excitement. Do not know what the result will be." Consul Simpich immediately wired a vigorous note to rebel authorities at Cananea, advising that American interests must be protected and deprecating any show of violence against the American consular agent. Except for the acts of irresponsible Mexicans the exodus of Americans continued quietly today. Louis Hostetter, American consul at Hermosillo, wired he would reach the border Monday. Americans as far south of Hermosillo as Culiacan are to be brought north on a special train under protection of General Alfaro Obregon the rebel commander. A raid of armed Mexicans on the United States side of the border occurred about twenty miles east of Nogales when Mexicans well equipped with guns started from Patagonia, Arizona, to rob mining camps on their way to the border. Americans from Nogales and surrounding towns quickly armed themselves and started in pursuit.

Only eight armed Mexicans started from Patagonia but they were said to have gathered recruits and were headed for the border at Lochile. The sheriff at Duquesne called for help and two automobiles loaded with armed American civilians and a lieutenant of the United States army started for Nogales in the hope of capturing them.

The orders of the Americans are to shoot if the Mexicans showed fight. Urged by more conservative speakers, the mob about the American consulate at Cananea finally dispersed. Consul Montague then put all his papers in an automobile and tonight started overland for the border which he expected to reach about midnight.

THE WEATHER

WASHINGTON, April 25.—For Illinois: Fair Sunday; Monday cooler and unsettled, probably showers; moderate shifting winds.

Temperatures.

The current, maximum and minimum temperatures recorded for Saturday were:

	Current	High	Low
Jacksonville	74	79	64
Boston	42	46	38
Buffalo	56	60	46
New York	42	50	46
New Orleans	74	82	64
Chicago	71	74	60
Detroit	64	70	50
Omaha	78	80	56
St. Paul	86	86	44
Helena	52	60	38
San Francisco	56	60	48
Winnipeg	58	58	42

The consuls were assured that there was no intention to subject the residents much longer to the danger of bullets from this source. It was decided that hereafter all American marines and bluejackets shall be withdrawn from all roofs except at a few designated points, such as church towers and that the patrols shall be instructed to shoot to kill any other individual seen on any other roof after 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The patrols will also be instructed to surround and search any house from which sniping occurs and to shoot any person guilty of indulging in this practice. It is realized that much of the trouble has been caused by the idle and vicious element and prisoners of this class will be held in some building or inclosure in the outskirts and will be compelled to do much of the work which is now being done by the marines and bluejackets.

Information regarding the new and drastic measures to be employed is being disseminated by official order. It is likely steps will also be taken at an early date to regulate or even suppress certain of the local newspapers which have been printing articles calculated to inflame the people against the Americans.

SENTIMENT STRONG FORWARD DECLARATION

Leaders in Congress Discuss Necessity for Sweeping Campaign in Mexico

PREDICT BREAK MONDAY

Congressmen Predict Storm of Feeling Will Break as Soon as U. S. Troops Reach Vera Cruz

SENTIMENT FOR DECLARATION

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Though the Mexican crisis has been under suppression in congress for several days while the president and his cabinet executed plans or reprisals against the defiance of General Huerta there is an impelling undercurrent of feeling in both senate and house for a declaration of war, which was tempered somewhat tonight by the acceptance of offers of mediation from Argentina, Brazil and Chile.

Leaders in congress had for several days been informally discussing the necessity for an unequivocal declaration of war, for a sweeping campaign in Mexico and for the ultimate establishment by force of American arms of peace and constitutional government in the battle-torn republic. No swell from the undercurrent reached the surface today however built congressmen in both houses had predicted a storm would break Monday or soon as American troops reached Vera Cruz to support the naval forces there. Members who were most restive over the situation believed tonight after learning of the intermediation proposals that no further aggressive action toward Mexico should be forced until it should become apparent that the good offices of South American nations to compose the situation would fail.

Although there was evidence of the feeling of dissatisfaction with present conditions in the senate, probably the most remarkable evidence of unrest was given in the house. During a day devoted over the surface to a discussion of Mexico the most of the leaders were in conference and sentiment developed was strongly in favor of war. In the conferences more than a dozen of the most prominent men on the Democratic side participated.

Speaker Clark, majority leader Underwood, Chairman Flood of the foreign relations committee; Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee and Chairman Hay of the military committee, figured in all of them.

The discussion was so outspoken that there was talk for a time of the appointment of a committee to consist of Speaker Clark and Mr. Underwood, which should call upon President Wilson and inform him that the sentiment of the house was for war.

Developments Interfere.

Developments of the day, however, particularly the appearance of hope that mediation by South American republics might bring about a peaceful solution, interfered with this plan and the conferences ended without definite conclusion but with most of those who participated convinced that it was only a question of time until drastic action must be taken.

Out of the many conferences the attitude of the house leaders became exceedingly clear.

They said war should be declared; that the United States should send the army into Mexico and "go through with what it had started", that in this way only can peace be established on a sound and permanent basis. They reported the sentiment of the house on their side and they prepared to tell the president that since the house took this position the believed it to be the position of the country. Although the news of proffered mediation put a new aspect on the situation it was the general understanding that the house leaders expect to make their representations to the president as soon as the army has been concentrated at Vera Cruz.

In the senate there was no such concerted action as was evident in the house but there were reports of dissatisfaction from individual senators and evidence that the bond of silence which many senators have observed for months will be broken on Monday and that war talk will flourish again.

Volunteer Army Bill Signed.

Washington, April 25.—President Wilson late today signed the volunteer army bill, which provides for the organization of volunteer forces in time of war. Under the measure bodies of state militia would be taken into the federal service with their officers, who would be commissioned by the president.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

Vinita, Okla., April 25.—Four men were killed and six injured when a northbound Missouri, Kansas & Texas freight train toppled into a creek twenty miles north of here today.

TO TRY YOUTH FOR MURDER.
Corning, N. Y., April 25.—David Dunn, the 19-year-old youth who on February 23 murdered Harry Edwards, night cashier of an express company here, is to be placed on trial Monday. A desire to steal $10,000 in currency which had arrived at the express office during the night and was to have been shipped the following day furnished the motive for the murder.

Edwards, the night clerk, had given Dunn permission to sleep in the express office for the night when the latter told him he could find no place of shelter. Dunn waited until he believed Edwards to be asleep and then attempted to open the safe. When Edwards suddenly awakened and found Dunn at work on the safe the robber shot and instantly killed him. After assuring himself that Edwards was dead Dunn made an attempt to blow the safe. The operator in the telephone exchange heard the report and notified the police. The latter thereupon called up the express office. Dunn coolly answered the telephone, impersonating the dead cashier, and assured the police that there was nothing wrong.

Dunn worked on the safe the greater part of the night, but failed to open it. He was arrested on suspicion the next morning and according to the police made a complete confession of the murder. It is believed his counsel will try to establish a defense of insanity.

FURTHERING PLANS FOR T. P. A. CONVENTION

Post O. Making Ample Arrangements For Entertaining Traveling Men at State Convention, May 1-2.

Post O. held a business session last night at which further plans were talked over relative to the T. P. A. convention which meets here next Friday and Saturday. Resolutions of respect relative to the late Robert S. Fanning were passed.

It was agreed by the members that the band should be secured for both days, an arrangement made possible through the generosity of the members. Already some of the merchants have started to decorate for the occasion and the committee having this in charge expects to outdo any decorations the city has ever had. The 2,000 traveling men of Jacksonville expect to provide entertainment for the many traveling men who assemble here from Chicago to Cairo and Quincy to Danville.

As has been previously mentioned the guests will visit Camps Woolen Mills at 2:30 Friday afternoon and at 4 o'clock a musical will be given at the Woman's college. This will be followed by a reception given in the halls of the college and at 6 o'clock a banquet will be served the traveling men at T. W. C. At 7:30 a concert will be given at the Blind and the various departments of the state institution visited. A ball will be given at the Blind after the concert.

Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock will take place the parade in which a large number of decorated automobiles will take part. The committee has offered three prizes for the best decorated cars. Saturday morning the lady visitors will be taken to the State School for the Deaf and from 2:30 till 4:30 p. m. Saturday a reception will be given at the Pacific and Dunlap hotels in honor of the guests.

The exercises will be held in the Grand Opera house and there will be no secret conferences, the public being cordially invited to attend all the sessions.

Resolutions of Respect.
Inasmuch as it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst in the friend and fellow traveler, Robert S. Fanning, and taken him to that bourne from whence no traveler returns.

Therefore, be it resolved, that Post O. of the Travelers Protective Association of America, in special meeting assembled, do hereby tender its heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved wife, his aged parents, his brothers and sisters, in this their hours of darkest sorrow.

And, Furthermore, be it resolved that this organization feels that it has lost one of its strongest supporters, loyal workers, and wisest counselors.

Resolved, that this resolution be transcribed upon the records of this Post and a copy of the same be transmitted to his sorrowing widow.

The Drug Department Endorses Absolutely Pure Olive Oil.

You should exert every effort to supply yourself with only absolutely Pure, unadulterated Olive Oil. We Guarantee Monarch or Syllmar brands of Olive Oil to be absolutely pure and free from adulterations of all kinds. They are just the PURE VIRGIN OLIVE OIL that comes from the first pressing of the finest olives.

TAKE OLIVE OIL! LIVE ON IT! LIVE IN IT!

LIVE WITH IT! EAT IT! DRINK IT!

Dress your food with it and don't do without it! Lubricate your system! Use it in every way!

To women who want a clean complexion: USE "MONARCH" OLIVE OIL. Full measure bottles in a variety of sizes. Special. Our line of Toilet Soaps and Talcums is very complete and includes Lana Oil Soap, Gray's Talcum and other leading brands.

We have specialized in offering quality goods in bulk in our grocery department, many of the lines in bulk, but handled in our high class sanitary way which insures the quality and gives the lower price levels. We are finding out daily too that customers appreciate the service we are giving them, a service which gives "the best and the most for the least money." Real economy in buying comes only when the store patron finds that he is not only saving money but that he is securing goods of staple quality. We are able to meet this requirement because we use an intelligence, based on long experience in buying. When we do our buying we have our customers continually in mind and their interests are our interests. The double service, in grocery and drug departments, which this store affords is another reason for the satisfactory service which is afforded our patrons.

RADIUM TO CURE DEAFNESS.

Berlin, April 25.—The merits of radium in the treatment of deafness and other affections of the ear will be threshed out at a congress of European ear specialists which is to begin its sessions tomorrow in Cologne. Eminent specialists of Germany, France and other countries have been experimenting for a long time to determine the value of radium and mesothorium in the treatment of ear troubles. Some of the experimenters claim to have met with decided success, while others are reported to be sceptical regarding the value of the treatment.

FIXES SCALE OF PRICES FOR SPRINKLING WORK

W. H. Naylor Announces Basis of Charges He Will Make—Fair Treatment for All Customers.

W. H. Naylor, who recently purchased from P. C. Maddox the equipment and good will of the Jacksonville Sprinkling company, intends to handle the business on principles which will be very satisfactory to his patrons. A regular scale of prices will be charged and patrons will be assured that the service is costing them no more or no less than others with like frontage. The table of rates is figured out according to the service rendered, and Mr. Naylor believes that it is equitable and that the cost to each patron will be found very reasonable. The bills will be presented monthly and will be on the following basis, the sprinkling season being eight months long—Public square frontage, 70 cents per foot, which means $14 per season for a twenty foot store room; East and West State, North and South Main, 60 cents per foot; other streets leading to the square, 50 cents per foot; residence property, 10 cents per foot. For business property with a large amount of side exposure as well as frontage the charge for the side will be 10 cents per foot.

These prices are effective from April 15th, and if there is anything about them which is not clear, Mr. Naylor will be glad to have patrons call him by phone and he will give any desired information. It is his intention also to personally see patrons and he will be ready to answer any questions.

Prompt and efficient service will be the motto Mr. Naylor will follow in sprinkling affairs, and the public can feel certain that every effort will be made to "keep down the dust" in Jacksonville this summer.

All members of U. C. T. and T. P. A. and all traveling men are urged to meet at the Pacific and Duplan hotel at 1:30 sharp to attend the funeral of R. S. Fanning.

JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL CO.

THE FINAL CHANCE FOR PEACE.

The action of President Wilson in expressing the willingness of the United States to accept the good offices of three South American countries, Argentina, Brazil and Chile in an effort to settle the differences between the United States and Mexico will be received by the American people with varied feelings.

In many quarters undoubtedly the president's course will be condemned as indicating weakness on the part of the United States in not pushing vigorously forward, along the line of action, begun when the order was given to seize the customs house at Vera Cruz. It will be argued, that if the course of Huerta in refusing to salute the American flag justified this action, the fact that four Americans lost their lives and twenty were injured in the firing at Vera Cruz, and the indignities heaped upon Americans and upon the flag at Mexico City, leave no course open but the armed insistence that Huerta be effaced from public life in Mexico and that a settlement of the whole Mexican trouble be made in a manner satisfactory to this government. In other words in many quarters there has been and will be a demand for a more aggressive handling of the situation.

There will however be a vast number of the people who will recognize in the president's action a final effort to avoid war, a sort of grasping at the last straw in the hope of maintaining peaceful relations with Mexico. The president undoubtedly realizes that a war will cost thousands of American lives not only because of the stubborn fight which might be expected but also because of the horrors of the southern climate which our soldiers are by no means fitted to combat. It is a land of pestilence and disease for those who are unaccustomed to it and an great problem which would confront the maintenance of an army is the scarcity of pure water.

President Wilson evidently reached his decision to accept the proffer of mediation only after he had spent hours in conference with his advisers and it is plain too that his decision was to some extent influenced by the thought that what might be termed an armistice would result in making sure the safety of those Americans in Mexico City and at other inland points whose lives are now in hourly jeopardy. It also appears from the tenor of the president's reply to the representatives of the three South American countries that he is not at all sanguine about the results of their proposition and he gives evidence that he has tried to meet the proposal with a mind unbiased by the realization that Huerta deserves nothing so richly as complete and speedy extermination by the strong arm of nation he has so gossily insulted.

So it seems likely that the unprejudiced, cool headed citizen who has carefully weighed the cost of war, that is the cost in human misery, will reach the opinion the president will probably right in brushing aside the wounded feelings of patriotism in one more effort to extend even more than common mercy to the people of a weaker nation. It is much easier to reach this state of mind with a weaker republic and when one remembers too that the demonstration thus far made has been not against the Mexican government but against Huerta, the usurper, the unrecognized.

MR. ANDRUS' CANDIDACY.

Charles S. Andrus of Springfield is the Republican nominee for circuit judge in the election to be held next Tuesday. Mr. Andrus is forty years of age and a member of the firm of Andrus and Truitt. He had his legal training in Michigan university and his record as a practicing attorney has been unusually successful. There are many Morgan county people who know Mr. Andrus personally and with one accord they give him credit for legal ability, high moral character and strict integrity. He has the qualities and training which well fit him for the office he is seeking and he should receive a large vote in this county.

WHAT TEXANS THINK OF THE MEXICAN TROUBLE

The following editorial from the Houston Chronicle is representative of the Texas opinion of the situation in Mexico and expresses the discontent with which the "watchful waiting" policy has been viewed by the border territories of the United States. The paper was sent to H. C. White of this city by W. H. Clifford, formerly of Jacksonville and now of Palestine, Tex. Under the caption, "Unleashing the Dogs of War" the Texas editor says: He has Let us have done with temporizing and technicality—let us forget names and face facts.

American blood has been shed on foreign soil and that, too, not only by soldiers under the Mexican tricolor, but by civilians whose political associations it were idle to attempt to discover.

In a country where confusion reigns, and where loot and plunder is the chief object of all contending factions, what is the use of trying to fix responsibility on individuals? It is time to deal with causes rather than symptoms. We have nothing to hope from any of the present leaders in Mexico, and as we have been balked in our efforts in attempting to deal with a Huerta so would we be balked by a Carranza or a Villa.

Let the grove come off, and let us take hold of this situation barehanded as did the men of '48. Four Americans were killed, and twenty wounded at Vera Cruz on the 21st.

If that does not mean war what does it mean?

If prepared to use force for a constructive insult to the flag, to what ends shall we not go now that American blood has been shed under its very folds?

Not in passion, but with cold deliberation, should we enter Mexico. The constructive influence of this nation is too essential to the development of civilization to be trifled with.

During three years we have exemplified patience and forbearance by refraining to exact reparation for injuries which we would never have tolerated from a stronger people, and this in consideration of that mercy due the weak.

Our declarations have been misconstrued, and our purposes distorted.

Vainly we have endeavored to explain to the Mexican people that our reluctance to resort to force was born of a disinclination to chastise a comparatively helpless foe. Vainly we have sought to impress them with the fact that our dearest desire was their own welfare. Vainly we tried to apprise them of their errors, and vainly we have labored to offer corrective assistance.

Our explanations have been received with sneers, and our suggestions have been misinterpreted.

In the meantime a nation is plunged in discord and confusion. The Villias, the Carranzas and the Huertas loot and plunder, while the women and children starve.

At this moment four of our boys lie dead, while twenty more are stricken. They are the first martyrs in this most recent struggle for the betterment of a benighted people.

Let their example kindle a new flame of idealism that shall place facts before theories and results before dreams.

Car or Super-Car

That is the chief question men have to decide in buying a car to keep.

It overshadows everything else.

Almost any car is fit for normal service. There are very few cars which won't demonstrate well, or even run well for a season.

Then is it worth while to build or to buy a super-car like this Reo the Fifth?

Listen to our side of that question.

AFTER 27 YEARS

Mr. R. E. Olds, after 27 years of car building, says that all these extremes are essential. Not for normal conditions, not for one season service. But to meet shocks and strains—to withstand years of wear—to save troubles, repairs and upkeep, a car must be built like this. And no man in the world knows better about that than Mr. R. E. Olds.

WHAT WE REQUIRE

We have for years kept test cars on the road. Relays of drivers run them night and day at high speed on rough roads. After 10,000 miles of this reckless driving we take the car apart and inspect it.

We require every part to endure that rough service. And every driving part, after 10,000 miles, must remain almost like new. Every formula, test and specification is based on these requirements.

To insure this, all steel is made to formula and each lot is analyzed twice. Gears are tested in a crushing machine for 75,000 pounds per tooth. Springs are tested for 100,000 vibrations. Engines are put to five radical tests, then taken apart and inspected.

Then we require a big margin of safety. All driving parts in this 35-horsepower car must meet the usual tests required for a 50-horsepower engine.

IT STAYS NEW.

The result is a car that stays new. It doesn't grow noisy, doesn't show wear and doesn't give trouble. After years of use, with proper care, the car will run like new. It has strength enough for shocks. It has power enough for hills. There is no clashing of gears to wreck the transmission. There are no flaws, no weaknesses. Every part has vast over-capacity. A car built like this will save the average user hundreds of dollars in repairs and upkeep.

We Keep Your Suit New!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently, does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

"THIS IS MY 58TH BIRTHDAY."

Henry Morganthau.

Henry Morganthau, the new United States ambassador to Turkey, was born in Mannheim, Germany, April 26, 1856. At the age of nine he accompanied his parents to the United States and received his education in the public schools and the College of the City of New York. He was admitted to the bar in 1877, following his graduating from the law school of Columbia university. He made a specialty of corporation law and soon became one of the best known members of the New York bar. Though he had taken an active interest in politics and public affairs for many years, Mr. Morganthau never held public office until appointed to his present post at Constantinople by President Wilson.

Congratulations to:

Lewis Hartcourt, British colonial secretary, 51 years old today.

Sir Joseph G. Ward, former premier of New Zealand, 57 years old today.

James T. Powers, well known comedian, 52 years old today.

Benjamin F. Tracy, former secretary of the navy, 84 years old today.

John J. Barry, shortstop of the Philadelphia American league baseball team, 27 years old today.

Ray B. Caldwell, pitcher of the New York American league baseball team, 26 years old today.

A SUCCESSFUL CAREER.

B. Steinmeyer of Brown's Crossing, Sangamon county, was in the city yesterday visiting his esteemed friends, Thos. and Deem Rapp. The gentleman landed in New Orleans at 21 years of age in 1856 with sixty cents in his pocket. Friends helped him get to St. Louis and there he again was penniless but he found friends here who trusted him with five dollars and told him to make for Jacksonville. It was then winter and things were not very lively but he left by way of sold, the only route at that time by rail, and on the way from sold he came across a countryman who hired him and both left the train at Orleans.

It was winter but the young German went to work with a will and served various people and finally having a small sum of money by him and a frugal wife he bought a piece of land at $20 an acre. To this he has added from time to time, his last purchase being a farm of Charles Ransom for $40,000, making his possessions in this and Sangamon county 650 acres.

The late Michael Rapp was the first one to talk with him in the speech of the dear Vaterland and he has ever since held the family in warm esteem and calls whenever in the city and sensibly buys his harness and similar goods of the boys.

PRINCESS MARY IS SEVENTEEN

London, April 25.—Princess Mary, the only daughter of King George and Queen Mary, celebrated her seventeenth birthday today. Many presents were received at Buckingham palace from all the members of the British royal family and from relatives on the continent. In token of the anniversary flags were displayed on all the government buildings today and at noon the customary salutes were fired in St. James' park and at Windsor.

The Givers.

By WALT MASON.

The great fine men are oft obscure; they have no wide, resounding fame, that experts warrant to endure until the finish of the game. Old Clinkenbeard is such a man, and though he has no store of yen, he's always doing what he can to help along his fellow-men. He has no millions to disburse, but when he meets a hungry guy, he digs a part from his purse, which buys the sinkers and the pie. The gifts of bloated millionaires mean nothing of a sacrifice; they sit around in easy chairs and count the seeds they have on ice; if Croesus gives ten thousand bucks to help some college off the rocks, he still can have his wine and ducks—he has ten million in his box. The widow's mite, I do not doubt, in heaven made a bigger splash than shekels Pharisees shelled out from their large wads of ill gained cash. And so the poor man, when he breaks the only William in his pants, to buy some widow tea and cakes, is making angels sing and dance. In fertile soil he's sowing seeds, and he shall reap a rich reward; for he who gives the coin he needs, is surely lending to the Lord.

DR. JOHN N. COULTER WILL

GIVE COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Speaker Announced for Graduation Day at Illinois College—Baccalaureate Sermon by Dr. Osora S. Davis of Chicago.

Announcement has been made at Illinois College by President Hammeikamp that Dr. John N. Coulter, head of the department of botany at the University of Chicago, will deliver the commencement address before the graduation class of Illinois college next June. The baccalaureate sermon will be by Dr. Osora S. Davis, president of the Chicago Theological seminary.

This is not the first time that a noted scientist has been invited to deliver the commencement address. Dr. Coulter took part in the Illinois college commencement at the exercises held 15 years ago.

Is Noted Scientist.

Dr. Coulter was born in Ningpo, China. He is a graduate of Hanover college, Indiana, and holds advanced degrees from Hanover college and Indiana university. He was, at one time, president of Lake Forest college, from which position the late President Harper called him to the chair of botany at the University of Chicago. He also served at one time as president and professor of botany at Indiana university. He is the founder of the Botanical Gazette, and since 1875 has been its editor. Professor Coulter is a member of several scientific associations and the author of several books relating to the subject of botany. Incidentally, he is also a man of broad interests and a public speaker of ability. He has been especially interested in the student Y. M. C. A. movement.

President Davis is a native of Vermont. He has had a varied experience in life; as a boy he learned the trade of telegraph operator and attended public school irregularly. In 1889 he graduated from Dartmouth college and after graduation was engaged in school work for several years; he then decided to study for the ministry, graduating from Hartford Theological seminary in 1894. He spent two years of study in the Universities of Berlin, Jena and Leipzig. He has held pastorates on the Congregational church of Springfield, Vermont, Central Congregational church of Newtonville, Mass., and South Congregational church, New Britain, Conn. In 1909 he was called to the presidency of the Chicago Theological seminary. He has been granted the degree of D. D. by Grinnell college and also by Dartmouth. He is the author of "Arthur John Robinson, the Pilgrim Pastor," and numerous published sermons and addresses. Dr. Davis is a very eloquent speaker. Three local churches, the Congregational, Westminster and State Street churches, will unite in this service. These services will be held this year in the Congregational church.

Student Speakers.
The student commencement speakers are yet to be chosen by the faculty. They are generally selected, the basis being scholarship and oratorical ability. These will be announced soon.

All members of U. C. T. and T. P. A. and all traveling men are urged to meet at the Pacific and Dunlap hotel at 3:30 sharp to attend the funeral of R. S. Fanning.

FROM MAJOR GEORGE

M. McCONNELL.
While what is quoted hereafter may not have been intended for publication, yet the writer of the quotation is entitled to the credit referred to, and it should be given him.

Writing from Fairhope, Ala., Apr. 3, 1914, Major Geo. M. McConnell says, in a private letter:

"I wish all contributions to local annals emulated your example. For example, five or six possibly more years ago, an article appeared in the Journal, signed by — (also should have known better) purporting to give the history of the erecting and the building of the first Jacksonville water works, in which my name was not mentioned, altho as a matter of fact, I, as a member of the council, drew, introduced, and pushed to passage the order for the first election, and later the ordinance organizing the system and later as mayor, carried out the work, defeated the effort to kill the plan, and kept the cash within the assigned limit."

CARDINAL FARLEY GOES

TO ROME.
New York, April 25.—A large gathering of Catholic clergy and laity crowded the Hamburg-American line pier today to bid bon voyage to Cardinal Farley, who was among the passengers sailing on the steamship Berlin for Naples. The cardinal is going to Rome in accordance with the law of the church that necessitates the bishops paying periodical visits to the holy see to report on the work of their respective dioceses. It is understood Cardinal Farley's report of the work of the church under his immediate jurisdiction will be supplemented by an important contribution to Peter's pence. His eminence is accompanied on the trip by the Rev. Dr. Carroll, his secretary, as well as by a special party of clergymen of the diocese.

OFTEN THINKS

OF JACKSONVILLE.
Frank E. Kellogg, of the class of 1872 of Illinois College, is now secretary of the Santa Barbara County (Cal.) Walnut Growers Association. In a letter dated April 21st inst., he has this to say, which will interest his friends here: "My wife and I are well. Our six children are all married and are in business for themselves, and all are reasonably prosperous. Also we now have nine grandchildren, the oldest being 18 years old. "We often think of Old Jacksonville and our college days there."

NEWS FORECASTS FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, April 25.—Final arguments on the application of the eastern railroads for a 5 per cent freight rate increase will begin Monday before the Interstate commerce commission. A decision in the case is expected at an early date. If the commission holds that the rate increase is not needed, the case will terminate automatically. On the other hand, if the commission decides the roads have established the necessity for additional income the commission will proceed immediately to determine how the additional income should be raised.

Thursday, which will be the 125th anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington as first president of the United States, has been selected as the day for the formal dedication of the memorial blocks sent by the states of Colorado, Idaho and Washington to be placed in the Washington monument in this city. On the same day an interesting ceremony will take place in Statuary hall of the capitol—the unveiling of a statue of Dr. John Gorrie presented to the nation by the state of Florida. Dr. Gorrie earned fame by inventing the first ice making machine in the world.

The governors of all the states bordering on the Mississippi river are to meet in St. Louis Tuesday in response to the invitation issued by Governor Eberhart of Minnesota, to decide upon a co-operative plan of campaign to promote river navigation, drainage and the conservation of water power.

The executive council of the American Cotton Manufacturers' association will meet in New York city Monday for a session of two days. At the adjournment of the session the members will proceed to Boston, where the annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers will be in session.

The executive council of the American Bankers' association will meet Thursday in Hot Springs, Va., to make up the program for the association's annual convention to be held in Richmond next fall. Another important gathering of the week will be the annual convention of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association, which begins its sessions in Chicago Thursday.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador in Washington, accompanied by Lady Spring-Rice will leave Washington for Ottawa on Monday to be the guests of the Duke of Connaught, governor general of Canada. On Friday next the Duke of Connaught will celebrate his 64th birthday.

In response to a call issued by the National Woman's Suffrage association the advocates of woman suffrage in cities and towns throughout the United States are expected to engage in parades and outdoor demonstrations on Saturday. These demonstrations are intended as a prelude to a national demonstration which is to be held in Washington one week later.

SPECIAL TAX NOTICE.
Paragraph 177 of the revenue law provides that taxes not paid by April 30, shall be subject to a penalty of one per cent and advertised as soon thereafter as a list can be prepared. THIS LAW WILL BE ENFORCED WITHOUT ANY EXCEPTION.

CINCINNATI REDS SWAMP THE CUBS

CHICAGO NATIONALS MEET DEFEAT BY SCORE OF 1 TO 13.

Reds Pound Cub Pitchers for Total of Twelve Hits—Smith is Forced to Quit Mound Before a Man is Out in First—Tinker's Men Play Poor Game in Field.

Chicago, April 25.—Cincinnati defeated Chicago thirteen to one in the final game of the series here today. The visitors started their attack on Smith and forced him to retire before a man was out in the opening inning. His successor, Koestner was hit hard and gave way to Stack. The latter was wild and this coupled with opportune hitting enabled Cincinnati to swell its total of runs. The score:

Club:			R. H. T.
Cincinnati	503	000	320—13 12 3
Chicago	000	010	000—1 6 5
Batteries—Davenport and Gonzales; Clark; Smith, Koestner, Stack and Archer, Bresnahan.
Reulbach Yields Three Hits.
Boston, April 25.—Reulbach was in fine form today, allowing Boston only three scattered hits and Brooklyn won easily four to nothing. The score:
Club:			R. H. T.
Brooklyn	010	003	000—4 12 1
Boston	000	000	000—0 3 0
Batteries—Reulbach and Fischer; Crutcher and Gowdy.

CLEVELAND WINS FROM CHICAGO WHITE SOX 1 TO 0

Nap Recruit Had Edge on Benz in Pitchers' Battle, Allowing Four Hits to Latters Five.

Cleveland, O., April 25.—Hagerman, a recruit pitcher, had the edge on Benz of Chicago today and Cleveland won 1 to 0. The score:

1 to 7.

WAVERLY BOY IS TOUCHED FOR THIRTEEN SAFE HITS

McManes Pitching for Springfield is Hard Hit and Watchmakers Lose 1 to 7.

Decatur, Ills., April 25.—Decatur captured the final game with Springfield Saturday by a score of 7 to 1.

Recruit Schlansker was effective in the pinches while Blitz led the attack on McManus. He, in four times to bat, hit a home run, a double and two singles and crossed the plate four times. The score:

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Decatur	201	001	003
Springfield	000	000	010
Batteries—Schlansker and O'Brien; McManus and McCann.

INABILITY TO HIT CAUSE OF DANVILLE'S DEFEAT

DANVILLE, Ills., April 25.—Inability of the Boylers to hit Holland in the pinches was the cause of today's defeat. The game was featured by Kahl's slugging and Erloff's great pegging to second. The score:

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Danville	000	000	000
Quincy	010	000	010
Batteries—Selby and Erloff; Holland and Adams.

ILLINOIS WINS 3 TO 2

Champaign, Ill., April 25.—Illinois tied the score today in the eighth inning and won out in the ninth, defeating the University of Minnesota nine 3 to 2. Both teams played loosely in the field and did not give their pitchers the support they deserved.

SHRINE'S TEMPLE DEDICATED.

St. Louis, April 25.—Prominent members of the Mystic Shrine from many parts of the country came to St. Louis today and helped to dedicate the new Moolah Temple in this city. Imperial Potentate William W. Irwin of Wheeling, W. Va., was in charge of the ceremonies. The new building cost a quarter of a million dollars and is one of the most magnificent temples owned by the order anywhere in the country.

NAVY DEFEATS HARVARD

Annapolis, Md., April 25.—By a margin of a little over half a length, Navy's varsity eight oared crew today defeated Harvard varsity crew covering the distance a mile and five sixteenths in six minutes and forty three seconds. Harvard crossed the finish line two seconds later.

OXFORD U. CAPTURES RELAY CHAMPIONSHIP

ENGLISH SCHOOL WINS FOUR MILE CHAMPIONSHIP OF AMERICA.

Race at University of Pennsylvania Ends in Most Sensational Finish Ever Seen in That Event on Franklin Field—Race is Run in Heavy Rain Storm.

Philadelphia, April 25.—Oxford of England won the four mile college relay championship of America from the University of Pennsylvania here this afternoon in the most sensational finish ever seen in that event in the seventeen years the race has been run on Franklin Field. The English team had to fight all the way and won the remarkable race by a scant eight inches. Cornell was third.

Jackson, Olympic 1,500 meter champion, the anchor man of the English team was pushed to the limit of human endurance by McCurdy, of Pennsylvania, the two mile intercollegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breathed the tape.

The race was run in a heavy rain storm and the time, 18 minutes, five seconds, broke the four mile record for the Pennsylvania relays. The American world's record is held by Cornell, 17 minutes, 55 seconds. As the two men fell across the line an excited spectator rushed at James E. Sullivan, the referee and wildly protested McCurdy had been fouled out Sullivan waved him away and declared the English team the winner. There was not the slightest ground for a protest the referee said. The one mile college relay championship of America was won by Harvard with Pennsylvania second and Cornell third, the only starters. The two mile relay championship was captured by Illinois in the good time of 8 minutes, 4 seconds. Chicago University runners led in the first mile and a half when Michigan and Illinois runners came to the front and in the hard finish Captain Sanders of Illinois had more speed left in him than that of Michigan and crossed the tape first. Dartmouth was fourth.

Summary of National Championships.
One mile national relay championship—Won by Harvard. (Capper, Rock, Bingham, Barrow); second, Pennsylvania. (Ferguson, Cross, Lockwood, Lippincott); third, Cornell. (VanWinkle, Lewis, McHaffey, Caldwell). Time by quarters: 52 seconds; 1:43.25; 2:33; 3:22.35.

Two mile national relay championship—Won by Illinois. (Goelitz, Topping, Henderson, Sanders); second, Michigan. (Murphy, Lamey, Jansen, Haff); third, Chicago. (Campbell, Stout, Leisure, Stegman); fourth, Dartmouth. (Tucker, Riley, Grainger, Marceau).

Time by half miles: 2:00 4-5; 4:03 1-5; 6:05; 8:04.

Four mile national relay championship—Won by Oxford University. (Eland, Sproule, Gassen, Taber, Jackson); second, Pennsylvania. (Baron, Langner, Madeira, McCurdy); Cornell. (Sonder, Potter, Irish, Snellen) and Pennsylvania State. (Entwistle, Shroeder, Garland, Keiser), did not finish.

Time by miles: 4:33; 9:07; 13:29 4-5; 18:05.

BETTER BABIES.

The crusade for better babies has spread from coast to coast and taken firm hold of American Mothers. Few women realize how much the ill health of the mother influences the unborn child, both physically and mentally. Women who suffer from mysterious pains, backache, nervousness, mental depression, headaches, etc., should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, which for nearly 40 years has been the standard remedy for these ailments.—Adv.

NOTABLE WEDDING IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 25.—Official and resident society in the national capital, the army contingent in particular, was well represented at the wedding this afternoon of Miss Frances C. Brooks, daughter of Col. John C. W. Brooks and granddaughter of Gen. John M. Wilson, and Edward Cunningham Bergner Fletcher of Philadelphia. The marriage ceremony was performed in St. Thomas' church and was followed by a large reception at the Wilson home in Massachusetts avenue.

Reliable—Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

It is the quality of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound that makes it such a reliable medicine. For coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchial and la grippe coughs, which "hang on" in the spring and weaken the system, it has no equal. It also gives prompt and definite results for hoarseness, tickling throat, and stuffy, wheezy breathing. Mrs. Benj. W. Seavey, West Mills, Me., says: "Let me tell you how much I think of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a family cough syrup. It is particularly valuable as a small quantity has the effect desired, and it contains no opiates. I consider it the best cough syrup we have ever used." And Thos. Verron, Hancock, Mich., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar has always proven effective, quickly relieving tickling throat, and stopping the cough with no bad after effects." In 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottles. The genuine is in a yellow package. For sale by City Drug Co., and overmeyer—adv.

BASEBALL WAR WILL BE FAT THING FOR LAWYERS

One Hundred and Thirty-five Thousand Dollars in Damages Has Already Been Asked in the Courts—Some Big Fees Certain.

New York, April 25.—One hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars is asked in the damage suits now pending between the National and Federal leagues, resulting from the jumping of players. This stunt of the big league moguls in rushing into court with damage suits and injunction pleas is something new in baseball warfare. With the single exception of the Lajoie case, which was taken into court in Philadelphia, the war of a dozen years ago between the American and National leagues produced no soft money in the way of fees for attorneys. The two old leagues kept out of the courts and used their coin as bait for players.

The present war among the big leagues is being fought along different lines. When a player does a flop his old manager loses no time in hot footing into court with a plea for an injunction in one hand and papers for a damage suit in the other.

In connection with the numerous law suits already filed there surely are some strange and peculiar angles. To the trained lawyer they may not seem out of the ordinary, but to the everyday fan they look very much like "bunk." President Gaffney of the Boston Braves asks $25,000 damages from the Baltimore Federal league club on account of Pitcher Jack Quinn deserting the Braves and signing with Baltimore. Quinn's record shows that he did good work for Rochester after falling with the New York Yankees. He also showed up fairly well after joining the Braves last fall. But to declare that Quinn is worth $25,000 on his past performances seems like juggling figures to the limit.

The Federal league is seeking $15,000 damages from Killifer of the Phillies and Blanding and Kohler of the Cleveland Naps. Ten thousand dollars is sought by the league from Baumgardner and Williams of the St. Louis Browns, and $25,000 from Hamilton of the same team. In these cases the players and not their clubs are the defendants. The claim of the Federals is based on the refusal of the players to live up to the contracts they are said to have signed with the new organization.

In the opinion of lawyers the Federal league will have to establish that the defendant players have deprived the Federal league of extraordinary services, or in other words, services that could not be performed by others. If the Federals are compelled to make their claims good along this line they doubtless will center the fight on the case of Bill Killifer, who is the star of the whole outfit that has been drawn into court. Killifer is ranked as one of the leading catchers of the big show.

As a counter action to the suit of the Federals against Killifer, President Baker of the Philadelphia Nationals has filed two suits against the officials of the Chicago club of the Federal league. Baker asks $25,000 damages and an injunction restraining the Federal league from interfering with the players of the Philadelphia club.

With Blanding, Kahler, Hamilton and Baumgardner, the other defendants in the damage suits filed by the Federal league, ranking 19th, 29th, 31st and 35th, respectively, in the 1913 records of American league pitchers, it is difficult to see how the Federal league can obtain any damages for the loss of their services. With court decisions and three pennant races to follow the baseball fans will find plenty to keep them busy during the remainder of the season. And incidentally the law suits will make a nice bundle of change and learn more about the national pastime than they thought it possible to know.

H. M. Burns and son of Waverly were Saturday visitors in the city.

MISS NATHALIA E. R. JENSEN IS HEARD IN VIOLIN RECITAL

Was Assisted In Program at Conservatory by Mrs. Lucy Flickinger, Pianist.

Friday evening at Academy hall there was given one of the most enjoyable recitals of the season. Miss Nathalia E. R. Jensen, violinist, gave a program, assisted at the piano by Mrs. Lucy L. Flickinger of Petersburg. The hall was fairly well filled. Miss Jensen having earned in her four years' stay at the Conservatory many friends and admirers in Jacksonville, who followed her musical progress with much interest. There was much enthusiastic applause, the enjoyment of the hearers being apparently spontaneous and sincere, and Miss Jensen was obliged to respond twice to encores.

The first number, the F major Sonata for piano and violin, revealed at once the excellence of Mrs. Flickinger's playing and the sympathetic ensemble of the two performers. The colorful Grief music was given with great variety of tone, particularly in the charming Allegretto, which gained much favor with the audience. In the Tschalkowsky number Miss Jensen's remarkable tone, especially rich on the G string, showed itself, this beautiful composition receiving at her hands a genuinely emotional interpretation. It was, however, in the Bruch Concerto that her accomplishments were best brought to light, for not only was her technique quite sufficient for the difficult work, but much interpretive insight and musicianly thought were revealed. The last three numbers, of lighter calibre, served to show her good use of rubato and strong sense of rhythm. It is, in short, evident that Miss Jensen has made the most of her four years under Mr. Krich's instruction, having added to her natural ability many of his interpretive ideas.

The work of Mrs. Flickinger as accompanist deserves very high commendation. She has real musical feeling, excellent tone and technique, and she was invariably at one with the violinist.

As an encore at the close of the program Miss Jensen played Kreisler's "Schoen Rosmarin." Following is the program in full:

Sonata, Op. 8, for piano and violin Edward Grieg
Allegro con brio.
Serenade Melancolique, Op. 26 P. Tschalkowsky
Les Farfadets, Op. 12, No. 2 Emil Penta
Caprice Viennois, Op. 2 Fritz Kreisler
Concerto, G minor, Op. 2 Max Bruch
Allegro Moderato
Adagio.
Canzonetta, Op. 6 A. d'Ambrósio
Humoresque W. B. Krich
Spiccatto Etude Johannes Palaschko

NEBRASKA CHARITIES

CONFERENCE.
Omaha, Neb., April 25.—What promises to be the most notable annual meeting ever conducted by the Nebraska State Conference of Charities and Correction will open in this city tomorrow and continue its sessions until next Thursday. The program provides for the discussion of an unusually wide variety of topics. Prominent speakers from outside the state will include Dr. Katherine B. Davis, commissioner of corrections of New York city; Jacob Billikopf, director of public welfare of Kansas City; and W. J. Springhorn, director of public welfare of Cleveland. An interesting feature of the program will be a round table for sheriffs, wardens and county commissioners conducted by Warden Fenton of the Nebraska penitentiary.

FRANKLIN VISITORS.

Visitors in the city yesterday from Franklin included Mrs. Cora L. Strawn, E. C. Jolly, James Cline, Thomas Ryan, G. J. Dowell, George Criswell, William Ryan, Newton Woods, Miss Isola Brewer, William Lowrey, Mrs. Ennie Seymour, Mrs. John Gray and Mrs. Lester, Miss Meta Darley, Mrs. J. W. Roberts and daughter Miss Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Burley Wright, Mrs. John Votsmeier, Mrs. John Thursby, Charles Cusins.

FIRST UNIVERSAL

HOUSE OF WORSHIP.
Chicago, April 25.—Plans to build the what is termed the "first universal house of worship in America" are to be perfected at the sixth annual convention of the Bahai Temple Unity, which met in this city today for a four days' session. The new temple is to be built in Wilmette, a suburb of Chicago.

OLD PEOPLE GAIN

Strength by Taking Vinol—Here Is Proof.

So many cases like this are constantly coming to our attention that we publish it for the benefit of others: Mr. John Widmayer of Jackson, Mich., says: "I am nearly 70 years of age, and was in a feeble condition but Vinol has done wonders for me. It is the best medicine to create strength I have ever seen and I have taken a good many of them. Last spring I was run down and worn out but I took Vinol and soon regained my strength. Vinol is certainly an invigorating tonic for old people."

It is the medicinal curative elements of the cod livers without oil aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron which are contained in Vinol that makes it so efficient in such cases.

If you have an aged father, mother or anyone in your family who needs a strength creating tonic, try Vinol on our offer to give back your money if it fails to benefit.—Lee P. Alcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

GRAVE PROBLEMS IN THE MEXICAN CRISIS

ALL FACTS POINT AWAY FROM SPEEDY SETTLEMENT.

Semi-Barbarous Indian Population, Hostile to American People and Illiterate, Would Be Serious Menace Should United States Be Forced Into Intervention.

In 1810 the people of Mexico revolted against their mother country, Spain, and for a decade and a half were embroiled in bitter warfare. In 1911 Mexico is again a stranger to peace and the United States is on the brink of stepping in and attempting to perform a task which the Mexicans themselves have found impossible in these one hundred and four years. In their century of national life the Mexicans have seen their enormous resources opened up, but have not become economically independent, they have attained intellectual power, but not common sense and though possessed of so-called republican institutions they have failed miserably in the art of self-government. It is in this country that the United States has taken a stand and may be compelled to remain until real peace is restored and the Mexicans instructed in the "precious art of self government." There are two things standing in our way; the combination of tyranny and ignorance which has kept the Mexican people in darkness and the hostility and suspicion with which the southern republic has viewed us almost from the first.

Who are the "Mexican People?"
In 1910 there were in Mexico 15,063,207 people, of whom one-twentieth or less were of pure Spanish blood. About a fifth of the people call themselves Spanish. A third of the population is of pure Indian stock and about a half is a mixture of Indian and Spanish. These Indians are descended from the old Aztecs and have been described by American travelers as "sober, industrious, docile, ignorant and superstitious."

There are no fine race distinctions in Mexico. Indians may vote and may aspire to any honor or any office. President Jaurez is the son of an Indian mother. A large part of the middle class and a considerable number of the upper class Mexicans belong to the mixed or Mestizo class. These people usually claim to be Europeans and other nations have often accepted this belief instead of realizing that Mexico is inhabited by people chiefly of native American stock, veneered with over-sea culture, law and political methods, but at best no further along than the Indians of the far American west.

The Institution of Peonage.
Among the most discouraging things in Mexico is the national institution of peonage, which is often worse than slavery. In operation the system is very simple. "A peasant or workman or miner is in your debt; then he is bound to work for you until he extinguishes his obligation, you furnishing him supplies, keeping the books, charging him interest and seeing to it that he never gets out of debt."

As slaves in the cotton fields of the south before the war, these peons are mistreated and abused and many have died from cruelty and overwork. In Yucatan there are haciendas which are mere slave driving camps, where from among every hundred new victims from half to nine-tenths will be dead at the end of the year. It was upon a foundation of peonage that the government of Diaz was built, a government which collapsed like a house of cards once the strong man at the head had lost his head.

The Lack of Education.
No one knows how far general education would remedy conditions in Mexico, as it is a thing as yet almost untried. The Spanish schools were few and very poor, although they did make provision for clerical and to some degree, higher education. No schools were established by the republic of Mexico until 1870 and from then there is little effect. There are less than a third as many Mexican children in school in Mexico, proportionally, than in the United States, and there are whole states where there are practically no public schools. Of the 15,000,000 people in Mexico the illiterate will number at least 10,000,000.

In a nation with so little popular education, there will be but two kinds of government, anarchy or absolute monarchy. For thirty years Mexico was under a one-man dictatorship, which amounted to absolute monarchy. The Diaz regime collapsed and there is now anarchy in Mexico. "How far the Mexicans could govern themselves is a problem, because every effort of self government for nearly a hundred years has been broken up, either by the dictator of the moment or by someone who wanted to be the next dictator." Without a greater degree of popular education, peace, for more than a mere surface stability—even should President Wilson succeed immediately in his demand for "the elimination of Huerta." A free Mexico must be built on deeper foundations. The peon must be lifted up, given rewards for his thrift, allowed to acquire land on easy terms and made a self respecting freeman.

Why the Mexicans Hate Us.
Our power to help Mexico out of this mire of anarchy and ignorance is naturally affected by the attitude the Mexicans bear toward us and the condition of public opinion becomes especially important in the light of the present crisis. The very name of this country—the United States of America—is distasteful to the Mexican, as it suggests to his mind a claim to the entire hemisphere. This suspicion is increased by our Monroe doctrine. He looks upon it as a proof of our national conceit and a testimony to our ultimate desire to annex his country. It has always been difficult for Mexicans to understand us. "Our forcefulness has been regarded as haughty and aggressive, our cool judgment as heartless calculation, and our sincere professions of friendship as hypocrisy."

Our diplomatic relations with Mexico have constituted a story of frequent misunderstanding. Our first minister, Joel R. Poinsett, was well fitted for place, as he spoke Spanish fluently and was especially sympathetic with the Latin peoples, but through an unfortunate train of circumstances the Mexicans became convinced that he was a diabolical agent sent among them to create discord. A commercial treaty which he succeeded in consummating was ignored and feeling against us was so strong that Mexico made secret preparations for war.

Diplomatic Entanglements.
Our second minister, Anthony Butler, was a bully from the first, with no respect for the feelings of the Mexicans and turned out finally to be a tactless rascal. He tried to purchase part of the territory of Texas, but threatened the government when his terms were refused. Later, he insulted one of the ministers and left Mexico City in disgrace.

With the revolt of Texas in 1836 our relations with Mexico became more strained. We were forced to send troops across the Sabine to quell the Indians, a thing which the Mexicans themselves were unable to do. To make matters worse, the minister of Mexico to the United States published a pamphlet at this time in which he attacked the good faith of this government. Diplomatic relations were severed and although ministers were again exchanged, the whole affair left a trail of bitterness. Then came raids committed by Mexicans across the Texas border, with threats of war in 1842. In 1845 diplomatic relations were brought to a close once more and soon war was declared with Mexico, a war which did more to make the Latin peoples suspicious of us than any other one thing. More trouble arose with Mexico during the ascendancy of Jaurez and amicable relations did not become established until the United States' recognition of Diaz in 1885. With Mexico, we have had a checkered diplomatic career and more often than not have been on distant terms with our neighboring republic of the south.

As the United States troops guard the bridge along the Mexico City-Vera Cruz railway, therefore, and troops are being mobilized in preparation for war, this nation is facing a great crisis. She is facing the task of establishing self government where a century of republican forms has only succeeded in destroying liberty. She is facing the responsibility of meting out justice to a semi-barbarous class of people held down for centuries by something worse than slavery. She is facing this problem in the face of deep seated hostility and suspicion on the part of the people she would benefit and, uncertain of what the morrow may bring forth, she should work out her destiny with "fear and trembling."

GIDEONS MEET IN HUTCHINSON.

Hutchinson, Kans., April 25.—A large attendance marked the opening here today of the annual state convention of the Gideons, or Christian traveling men. The convention was opened this afternoon with a reception at the Commercial club. Tomorrow morning the pulpits of several of the local churches will be occupied by some of the delegates to the convention. In the afternoon there will be an open meeting at which the principal address will be delivered by A. D. T. Moore of Oshkosh, Wis., the national president of the Gideons.

MOVEMENT IN STOCK
MARKET IS IRREGULAR

NEW YORK, April 25.—There was further unsettlement of the stock market today. The movement was irregular and at times confused. While the downward movement was extended net losses were considerably smaller than on the preceding day.

The irregularity of the movement was accounted for by the play of conflicting forces on the market. The two main factors in the week's decline were the Mexican crisis and heavy foreign selling. Today these influences pulled against each other. Foreign pressure was relieved and American stocks in London for the first time in several days, held fairly steady.

On the other hand, the Mexican situation was as much of a disturbing force as before.

At the opening, owing largely to the change of front on the part of foreign holders of American securities the market made a good showing, with a majority of small gains. The opportunity was seized for pouring out stocks and prices quickly began to yield.

RESTRICTION OF SUPPLIES
GIVES STRENGTH TO CORN

CHICAGO, April 25.—Sudden restriction of supplies from Argentina brought about great activity and strength today in the corn market here. Prices closed buoyant at 1/2c to 1 1/4c net advance and oats and wheat each gained 3/4c to 1/2c; in provisions the outcome varied from 2 1/2c decline to a rise of 15c.

Wheat rose with corn and as a result of firmness at Liverpool due largely to arrivals being scanty at Russian ports.

Oats sympathized with the rally in other grain. Buying of an investment character was noticeable in the deferred futures. Most of the rise in provisions was laid to the influence of war contracts. It was evident, however, that the changed aspect of the corn market was not without some effect.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

The Theta Sigma play which was given Monday night was enthusiastically received by the large audience. The individual work of those taking part in the cast was most creditable. Special mention of the work of Miss McGehee, who was obliged to take a prominent part on a day's notice, was especially creditable.

On Wednesday evening at 5:30, Dr. and Mrs. Harker entertained the seniors at luncheon. Following this an informal musical delighted those present.

Mrs. Lambert spent Thursday in Virginia where she was a judge in a declamatory contest held under the auspices of the high school.

Dr. Harker left Saturday morning for Assumption, where he will preach in the Methodist church Sunday, the 26th.

Friday morning the students used the chapel hour for the digging of dandelions making a start that is spoiling so many lawns in Jacksonville. Many thousands were destroyed at this time.

The banquet for the T. P. A. convention will be held in the dining room of the main building Friday evening, May 1st. After the banquet the travelling men will be the guests of the college in Music hall, where they will be entertained by a program presented by the students.

Plans are rapidly nearing completion for the annual May Day Festival. This is to be held, weather permitting, May 11th. This year the fete is to be in charge of the students themselves and promises to be of unusual interest.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Assessor and Treasurer, subject to the Democratic primary, Sept. 9, 1914.

BOY FALLS UNDER BUGGY.

Paul McKean, son of Mrs. M. Roberts of 1225 South Main street, was badly shaken up Saturday morning when he fell from a buggy on College avenue. He was getting out of the buggy when the horse started suddenly, threw the boy to the pavement on his head and the rig passed over him, one wheel striking his face. Dr. Allen King was called and dressed the injuries. No bones were broken but the boy received a number of painful cuts and bruises about the head.

FARMERS NOTICE

We Are Now Manufacturing Fertilizers For Soil

We have made a careful study of soil conditions and are now putting up an article which is considered the best on the market for INCREASED YIELD OF Corn or Oats. The same has the following analysis:

Bone phosphate 63.09 per cent.
Phosphoric acid 28.90 per cent.
Nitrogen 2.53 per cent.
Ammonia 3.07 per cent.

If you will carefully compare the analysis of our ROYAL BRAND BONE MEAL, you will find that the same is cheaper than the use of Rock Phosphate or any other fertilizers which are now on the market.

It only requires from 100 to 150 pounds of our BONE MEAL to an acre of soil, depending upon the condition of the soil.

This will increase your yield of corn or oats from 10 to 20 bushels to the acre for the first year.

CANTON BUSINESS MAN, 20 YEARS

STOMACH SUFFERER, FINDS RELIEF

M. Gibson Swiftly Restored by Use of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.

M. Gibson, a business man of Canton, Ill., for 20 years was a sufferer from stomach disorders. He took many treatments and spent large sums seeking relief.

One day he tried a dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. The results he sought came at once. He found quick relief. Telling of his experience, he wrote: "Your medicine is the best on earth. I have spent hundreds of dollars on medicine, doctor bills and hospital expenses. I have been sick for twenty years. Since I took your medicine I feel like a young man again."

Letters like that come from stomach sufferers all over the country. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy produces results. The first dose convinces—no long treatment.

Dr. E. O. Gable, the Chicago Specialist

Will Return to the Hotel Dunlap from 9:00 a. m. Mon., April 27 until 8:00 p. m. Thurs., April 30

HE WILL GIVE EXAMINATION AND HIS SERVICES FREE AGAIN TO ALL WHO SUFFER

Dr. Gable Talks of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Stomach and Kidney Trouble, Etc.

DR. EDWIN O. GABLE
Neuropathic Specialist.

I want to say a few words to people suffering from rheumatism, uric acid troubles, kidney and bladder troubles, and stomach troubles. These diseases are all caused from practically the same thing, and you might call them first cousins. In the beginning, there is some derangement of digestion or of the secretions. This allows the partly digested food to pass into the blood in such a state that the blood cannot assimilate all of it. As a result of this, there is a great deal of waste matter that must be carried off through the kidneys and skin, and the kidneys become gradually clogged up causing reabsorption of this waste matter into the blood. It then settles in the muscles, nerves, in the small capillary blood vessels, in joints, and causes the disease.

Almost every case of the above troubles can be relieved with my Neuropathic system of treatment, if the patient comes to me before too much of the tissues of the diseased organ is destroyed. My system of treatment cleanses and purifies the blood. It restores normal circulation and strengthens the nerves, and dissolves disease deposit. I would like every sufferer of these troubles to come to me on this trip to Jacksonville. I will take the time to make thorough examination of the heart, the circulation, the blood and the kidneys, and when I have finished, I will tell them exactly what their condition is; whether they can be relieved or not.

Catarrh of the nose, throat, or constitution, deafness, head noises and ulcers of the ears come from the same cause as rheumatism. I have successfully treated hundreds of cases of catarrh and deafness with my new system of treatment. Most cases of weak-eyes, chronic inflammation of the eyes, internal eye diseases and partial blindness are successfully treated by my method. Almost every form of weakness and disease of the nervous system, especially that kind that affects the heart, causing palpitation, shortness of breath, irregular pulse, smothering spells, dizzy spells, sick headaches, pain around the heart—all these troubles are given immediate relief by my treatment. Men and women suffering with weakness of some of their vital organs, no matter where, can obtain complete relief by my system of treatment. Most chronic discharges and wastings are curable.

I have treated a great many people in my two visits to Jacksonville, and have had great success with many old chronic cases. On this trip I am going to make examinations, give consultations and offer my services FREE to every sufferer that comes to me. I am not going to leave you any excuse for not learning of this treatment. I believe it is the most scientific treatment. You have everything to gain and absolutely nothing to lose by getting my professional opinion of your case, by learning exactly the condition of your heart, nerves blood and kidneys. I use no strong poisonous remedies, but such remedies as dissolve and clean out the disease deposits in the blood and tissues, that equalize circulation, that restore strength and vitality to weak nerves. When this is done you are bound to get relief. No matter where you live, rich or poor, I want you to come to see me this trip. You can do a kindness to some suffering neighbor or friend by telling them of my visit and my new system of treatment. Tell them to come and see me. You will also help me do them a kindness. While I will return to Jacksonville every month, this may be the last chance you will have to obtain my services FREE. My object is to cure a number of patients around Jacksonville to prove that my system of treatment is superior to others. Remember the days. I will be at the Hotel Dunlap from 9 a. m. Monday, April 27, until 8 p. m., Thursday, April 30.

SOME RECOLLECTIONS OF THE GREAT REBELLION

After Sherman's host had finished his work in South Carolina he moved on into the old North State and as quick as his army crossed the border there seemed to be an absence of that intense feeling of hatred that had been so prevalent while operating in the sister state of South Carolina. North Carolina had been slow to join the other seceding states and hence there was a feeling of leniency instead of vengeance toward the "Tar Healers." After all there was some fierce fighting in North Carolina. Joe Johnston, who had been superseded by General Hood on the previous 18th of July at Atlanta, had been recalled into service and had gathered the remnant of Hood's army, which Thomas had so thoroughly trashed at Nashville, December 15-16, 1864, and together with Wheeler's and Hampton's cavalry, had quite a formidable army to resist the advance of Sherman. This force met the Union forces at Bentonville and on the 19th, 20th and 21st days of March there were a series of battles fought to suit the most fastidious lover of the game. The Union loss was 1,604 killed, wounded and missing. The enemy was double this number. The affair at Bentonville was the last serious fighting indulged in by old "Teemseh" and his braves. My old regiment fought one entire day in a swamp with ice cold water up to their knees and waist deep at times. General Howard, who was present, pronounced that affair one of the best and most spectacular events of the war. It was the first and only time the enemy had ever seen the color of their knapsacks, and this could not be avoided, for they were surrounded and were compelled to load and fire, front, flank and rear. This was the beginning of the end of the long struggle after a march of 425 miles in 59 days, or 725 miles since leaving Atlanta, November 15, 1864.

A few years ago a Spanish-American war veteran was telling me of some of the "hardships" he was compelled to undergo. He said: "While we were camped at Chickamauga, Ga., waiting orders to go to Cuba, Porto Rico or somewhere else, we got orders to march to the railway station, seven miles distant. When we got there we were ordered to march back again, and it rained on us and wet got wet to the skin." Think of it! Got wet to the skin, and marched 14 miles. This story excited my risibilities, as I thought of Sherman's march to the sea and through the Carolinas. "Then," he continued, "there were lots of times when we neither had butter nor cream for our coffee, and all we had to sleep on was straw beds." Then I laughed some more, for all these were luxuries denied the Union veterans for four years. Compare these "hardships" to those endured by the boys who marched from Cairo to the sea and from the sea to Washington. In this case comparisons are odious. The Spanish-American war was hardly a skirmish compared to the four years' strife between the states from '61 to '65.

After Sherman reached Goldsboro and got in communication with the eastern forces Appomattox and the Grand Review were not far off. Grant had been hammering at Petersburg and the very gates of Richmond for more than a year, and the confederates had about reached the limit of endurance, both as to fighting for a hopeless and losing cause, and resources for man and beast, the end was inevitable and surrender only a question of a very short time. The enemy was forced out of Petersburg, 20 miles from Richmond, April 2, and on the 3d tumult and panic reigned in the capital of the dying confederacy, for it was soon to be given to the flames and Jeff Davis, his cabinet and the garrison were leaving the doomed city in full retreat, trying to escape the impending wrath soon to overwhelm them. Lee was being pressed and harassed by an overwhelming force of infantry, cavalry and artillery, and at last was driven to bay at Appomattox Court House, where he made his last stand and after some correspondence with Grant, concluded to surrender the grey legions to the Silent Man of Destiny, U. S. Grant. And thus the end had come. Arms were grounded and the battle flags of the lost cause were forever furled, while new and fadeless lustre had been added to the shining folds of Old Glory, untarnished and cleansed from the foul stains of human oppression. That 9th day of April was a glorious one for the Army of the Potomac, which had paved the way from Washington to Richmond with human bones and crimsoned the soil of the Old Dominion with the blood of tens of thousands of those who had marched to glory and the grave.

A few days later the supreme tragedy of the ages was to take place—the assassination of our beloved president, in Ford's theater, on the night of the 14th. The bullet that struck death to the martyred Lincoln paralyzed the nation and created an intensity of feeling against the assassin and the cause which engendered it, that time alone can obliterate.

On the 26th of the same month Johnston surrendered his army to Sherman, but not until after great trouble in bringing about the much hoped for consummation. The terms offered Johnston by Sherman created almost endless trouble for himself. President Johnson and his cabinet, more especially E. M. Stanton, secretary of war. The bitterness between the great war secretary and Sherman lasted up to the open grave, and each of these distinguished men were as relentless as fate. Neither of them ever thought of forgiving each other for alleged discourtesies caused by the controversies over the terms of Johnston's surrender. At the grand review of the 24th. It was also a magnificent and spectacular pageant, but it did not appeal to me as did the marching battalions of the glorious old western army that had cleft the confederacy in twain and left nothing but a shell.

There was a charm about the swinging gait of those old boys from the broad prairies of the west that is impossible to explain. And while they did not wear halos, each one seemed to be modestly wearing a crown of glory and a laurel wreath of victory won all along the weary march from Cairo to the capital of the republic, whose valor and heroism had crowned our arms with victory and cemented the Union with the best blood of the nation. I do not say this to disparage the boys of the Army of the Potomac, but it seems incredible that it should have taken them four years to march about one hundred miles. It may all be imagination, but I think there was a vast difference in the personnel of the two armies. I know there was as to appearances during the two days of review. The eastern boys, compared to the westerners, looked as if they had each just emerged from a bandbox. Thousands of them wore white gloves and paper collars, which was in decided contrast to "Sherman's Bummers," who appeared in the old worn and faded uniforms that had weathered the storms of rain, heat and cold of the greatest campaign in history. At the head of the Army of the Potomac rode Meade, who commanded the Union forces at Gettysburg and won the great victory there in the three days of fierce fighting, July 1st, 2d and 3d, 1863. Their battle flags seemed newer and brighter and their muskets shone as if they had never been in storms of wind and rain and the whirlwind of battle. But they had, and on their banners were inscribed the numerous engagements in which that army participated. Gettysburg, Malvern Hill, Kernstown, Deep Bottom, Cold Harbor, Spotsylvania, Antietam, Winchester, Cedar Creek, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, The Wilderness and other great conflicts too numerous to mention, most of which were fought on the soil of the Old Dominion. As on the following day, there were tens of thousands of spectators who lined the sidewalks and boulevards of the capital city of the nation. These great reviews meant the finale of the long and bloody struggle and the return home of the boys who had bared their breasts to the storms of war for four long and strenuous years—years of suspense, of misery unparalleled, untold suffering, of hope deferred, and unspeakable anguish for those who did not return, sorrow and deep seated grief for the fallen who sleep in unmarked graves, in the valleys and hillsides, on the plains and beneath the waves of the deep sounding sea. They meant that the flag had been returned from a thousand battlefields, untarnished and without the loss of a single star in its glorious constellation and that it should forever wave supreme on land and sea as long as men shall continue to love justice and human rights. "Flag of the free on ocean's wave, Thy stars shall glitter o'er the brave" (More to follow).

I had the good fortune to witness, also, the grand review of the Army of the Potomac on the day previous to Sherman's great parade of the 24th. It was also a magnificent and spectacular pageant, but it did not appeal to me as did the marching battalions of the glorious old western army that had cleft the confederacy in twain and left nothing but a shell. There was a charm about the swinging gait of those old boys from the broad prairies of the west that is impossible to explain. And while they did not wear halos, each one seemed to be modestly wearing a crown of glory and a laurel wreath of victory won all along the weary march from Cairo to the capital of the republic, whose valor and heroism had crowned our arms with victory and cemented the Union with the best blood of the nation. I do not say this to disparage the boys of the Army of the Potomac, but it seems incredible that it should have taken them four years to march about one hundred miles. Fourteenth Successful Year in Jacksonville. Consultation and Examination Free

I treat successfully the cases I undertake and accept no fee from those who are incurable. That is why I continue my visits year after year, while other specialists make only a few visits and cease to return.

IS THIS THE WAY YOU FEEL?
Tired in the morning and easily excited? Are you dizzy or nervous? Pain in the head? Tongue coated? Have you Catarrh—nose stopped up? Gas on the stomach? Hands and feet cold? Pain of hands moist? Have you a dull, dragging pain or ache of the body, back or limbs? Have you indigestion? Have you flatulency? Piles—itching or bleeding? Have you kidney or bladder trouble, lame or weak back, pains in back or limbs? Have you any blood disease—scrofula, skin eruptions, pimples, bone pains, pale complexion and losing weight?

I invite you to call and investigate the Carson System of the treatment of Chronic Diseases, which I have perfected after fifteen years of experience and study, and you will be convinced that my modern, up to date methods of curing disease are what you need.

Never before has there been a treatment giving such universal satisfaction. Every sufferer is cordially invited to call and secure full details concerning this new treatment free of charge.

REMEMBER DATE OF VISIT.
Come early as parlors are always crowded. A friendly call may save you future suffering. It has made life anew to thousands who had been pronounced beyond hope.

Don't Get Into Debt on a Rented Farm

Get into the dairy business on your own farm. I can put you in touch with the owners of fine prairie lands of rich soil, from 300 to 400 miles West of Omaha, which can be bought on very easy terms from $15 to $40 per acre. You are sure to make money by modern dairy practice, because the silo is the solution of the dairy problem and feed crops are heavy on these lands. If you haven't money at first to build a silo, dig one. Good farmers with proper equipment and feed can secure cows on time.

These owners make these special terms to dairy farmers, because they know that a good dairy farmer will make money by corn-silo dairy farming and will soon clean up his obligations. Then hogs and poultry fit right in and round out the profits. These 160-acre tracts are located among improved farms in established communities.

Give me your name; let me help you become the owner of a dairy farm.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR EVERY BUSINESS MAN.

Town Development Magazine has said that a City Building Organization without an adequate membership is as useless as an automobile without an engine.

The membership of the Commercial Organization is a fluctuating quantity. Various reasons are responsible for this. The most confounding reason is that the average citizen and business man not only wants to see his hundred cents of the dollar, which he has invested in his organization, return but it must come back to him with a good rate of interest earned.

This is seldom if ever possible.
How can the lawyer or doctor expect to receive such direct returns from the organization? Civic pride and the principle that prosperity for the grocer, the butcher and the hotel man means prosperity for himself, for his family and for his community are the controlling factors.
The short sighted man will not see it this way, for generally he is not a member and if his friends have forced him into taking a membership,
he just waits and longs for the opportunity to drop out. A poor excuse he argues is better than none.
Your best friends are generally the broad gauged business men and the best friends who support and believe in their Chamber of Commerce are the men who do not carry chips
on both shoulders.

Clean Up Week a Success.

From the appearance of all the rubbish, which has been carted to the dumping grounds provided by the city and the great amount which remains to be hauled away, Clean Up Week has been responsible for a thorough house-cleaning throughout the city. Under the direction of Mr.
Ol Spaulding eleven teams have been at work each day hauling off from seven to eight loads each of tin cans and unburnable rubbish. The work of the Clean Up Committee who have served in the different wards have done splendid work and it is hoped that during the remainder of the year the clean-up and beautifying of the city will be continued.

Paving and Boulevard Lights.

The agitation for street improvements this summer should be kept alive until something tangible results. The Board of Public Improvements are sure to take quicker action if they see that the business men and property owners are wanting these improvements.

A committee of leading citizens consisting of the Mayor, Commissioner Brennan and Newman and some of the heavy property owners could accomplish much by some personal solicitation. The great majority of people are proud to see their town progress, and if it does hit their pocketbooks a little hard at the beginning, they can be convinced that their real estate and property will increase in greater proportion in value to money invested.

There is no more excuse for Jacksonville hesitating to repair her principal thoroughfares and light them according to up-to-date municipal methods. A few public spirited citizens can start the ball rolling and the officers of the Chamber of Commerce will be glad to help. A well lighted public square is more essential to Jacksonville than to many small neighboring towns which have few people to traverse their streets.

Convention Fund Being Raised.
Very gratifying results have been the work of the Retail Merchants' Committee under the leadership of T. M. Tomlinson in raising a Convention Fund of $1,000 to be used in entertaining the T. P. A. and the Retail Merchants' Convention and several other conventions of the year. Funds must be available for bringing other gatherings to the city. Nearly every business man is agreed that conventions are good things for any city. The difficulty is to distinguish between people who receive their proportional share of business and to have them contribute as they should. There are many individuals who have not helped and they should be prepared to do something when the committee calls on them.

Chamber of Commerce Advertising Booklet.

Not until the advertising booklet which has been compiled and issued by the Chamber of Commerce had been published was the extent of the need for such a booklet felt. Daily inquiries require to be answered concerning Jacksonville for which such advertising literature serves. Anyone who wishing these folders can call at the office and receive enough to be judiciously distributed among their friends. The plan is to have them placed in railroad time table racks, in hotels and traction cars, thus furthering their use for advertising the city. Each delegate attending conventions in the city will receive one. These and many other ways will they prove their value
as a work which the Chamber of Commerce has done.

Jacksonville Men Eagerly Enlisted in '47

From a copy of the Morgan
Journal the compiler of "Historic Morgan" gives the following story of the organization of a Jacksonville company of the Mexican war in 1847. Some other facts about these early days are also given.

"For the Mexican war, under Gen. Ford's call, a company was raised in Jacksonville, by J. S. Roberts, editor of the Jacksonville Standard. Jacob Zabriski was elected first lieutenant, J. L. McCon-nel, second lieutenant, and James Dunlap, third lieutenant. Another company was raised at Waverly, by Col. Wm. Weatherford, who had figured in the Black Hawk war.
Jacob Brooks was organizing a company at Bethel. Neither this company nor Capt. Roberts' was quite up to the minimum when the day arrived to start to Alton, the place of rendezvous, and it was decided that the company that was full should be accepted to go. Both companies were marching around the square in Jacksonville with an understanding that a part at least of one of the companies would break and go with the other. The wagons which were to take them to Alton were drawn up in South St.
Louis street. The companies started from thence to march around the square. After in motion, Lieut.
McConnel passed back along the line and asked the men to preserve their organization, and went back to South St. Louis street to make a break and take possession of the wagons. The other company preserved its organization, not a man faltering, but when Roberts' company reached the wagons and made a break and climbed into them they stood for a minute in a dazed sort of a way, when about one-third of them broke ranks and joined Roberts' and moved off with them in triumph for Alton.

"The first night the boys stayed at White Hall. They received an address of welcome at Carrollton, and reached Alton at the end of the second day, and were quartered for the night in an old stone packing house on the front row by the wharf or levee. The next morning they were marched out to Frytown, where they were incorporated into the first regiment of Illinois volunteers. Colonel J. J. Hardin, commanding. Roberts' company being designated as D. The drill, both company and regimental, began in earnest. Captain Roberts was compelled to resign in consequence of a diseased limb, and Lieut. Zabriski was elected captain. The other lieutenants were moved up one step,
and S. Black was elected third lieutenant.

"By copies of the same paper dated in April and May, 1847, we find extracts from letters written by Major Warren, detailing the incidents of the bloody battle of Buena Vista, at which Col. Hardin, Capt.
Zabriski and privates Emerson and Connaught, of Jacksonville were killed, also a report of a meeting held in Alton, "for the purpose of adopting measures expressive of their gratification on account of the recent victory of American arms on the field of Buena Vista.

Also a statement that the population of the world is 812,553,721;
that Jersey City has elected the Whig ticket by 283 majority; that the fashionable color in Paris is amaranth; that the Camden, (N.
J.) Phoenix, an administration paper has declared for General Taylor as the Democratic candidate for the presidency, and another paper for Hon. John Sergeant for vice-president on the same ticket with him. The Journal, by the way, has the name of Gen. Zachary Taylor at its mast-head, to which N. M. Knapp in a communication, objects as "premature." In another column are election returns and among other things these show that N. M.
Knapp and his Whig colleague, Daniel Dinsmore, were elected in Scott county over their "Locofoco" opponents; that A. R. Knapp (Whig) carried Jersey; W. A. Grimsbury, (Whig) Pike; J. M. Palmer (Loco)
Maccoupin; Col. Singleton (Whig)
Brown, and B. F. Northcutt (Whig)
Menard. Editorially the Journal declares that "everything looks favorably for the Whigs" the Whig gains since the gubernatorial election being remarkable.

"Details of the battle of Buena Vista" from the New Orleans Delta, occupy three and a half columns.
On the editorial page we find the names of S. D. Lockwood, William Thomas, James Dunlap and James Gordon on the "Union Ticket" for the convention. Below is a card from "A Whig," who seems to hold the nomination of the Union candidates, and set up the names of Newton Cloud and J. W. Evans in opposition to Dunlap and Gordon.
Then followed a few editorial squibs
—something about the "Virginia Academy."

FRENCH PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS.

Paris, April 25.—General elections to the chamber of deputies will take place tomorrow, with second ballots
two weeks hence in constituencies where candidates fail to obtain the regulation majorities. The campaign which closed today with the last appeals of the candidates has attracted far more than ordinary attention. Of late years the French people have shown an increasing tendency to assign a smaller place in their lives to politics. But the home events of the past few months, particularly the Caillaux-Calmette tragedy and the investigation of the Rochette affairs, have served to rouse the people from their apathy and in consequence a very heavy poll is expected.

As Cheap as Ready Made but One Hundred Per Cent Better!

That is exactly what we claim for our made-to-order garments.

We stand ready to prove our assertion. Let's have the chance.

Every man or young man naturally desires to appear at his best, and right here is where we come in: You can choose from our big stock of the latest patterns just the one that will please you most. You don't have to take one certain thing just because there appears to be no other choice. Then we will make up your suit as you want, guaranteeing quality, fit and workmanship to equal the best.

Why not be a tailored-to-order man? The cost is only $20 to $30.
You can't beat the price in any ready-made suit that you would wear, and consider how much better your suit will be in every respect.

Come in and let us show you the new, swell black worsted with the fine white silk stripe, the imported novelties, the Tarlton blues and the olive plaids, browns and club checks. You'll thank us.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

Rely Upon

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Pilar Morin

Pilar Morin, the strikingly beautiful Parisian actress, of whom America's leading theatrical manager says, "I consider her the greatest actress
in her line in all the world," writes as follows:

"Newbro's Herpicide is the most delightful hair dressing that has ever come to my notice. It prevents the hair from falling out, does away with dandruff and gives the hair a beautiful lustre.

Cordially yours,
(Signed) PILAR MORAN."

The fact that leading Parisian women prefer Newbro's Herpicide is certainly conclusive evidence of its superiority.

The only rational remedy for this purpose is Newbro's Herpicide, the original germ-remedy for dandruff. In addition to this, it is the most exquisite hair dressing in the world, for no other substance tends to beautify the hair as does Herpicide.

A True Beauty Test for Women

Just begin the intelligent use of Herpicide in secret and see how quickly your friends will notice the improvement in your hair.

Herpicide contains no grease. It will not dye or darken the Hair. Stops itching of the scalp

Send 10 cents in stamps to THE HERPICIDE COMPANY, Dept. 105B, Detroit, Michigan, for sample and booklet.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00. Sold and guaranteed at all Toilet Goods Counters. When you call for HERPICIDE, do not accept a substitute. Applications at prominent Barber Shops.

MIDDY WAISTS AND BLOUSES NEW AND NOBBY, NOW ON SALE AT HERMAN'S.

REMAINS OF UNKNOWN MAN WILL BE INTERRED MONDAY

An inquisition into the death of the unidentified man who was found north of Concord on the Burlington tracks, was held at the Reynolds undertaking establishment Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Coroner George W. Wright. The following composed the jury: John Pate, foreman; Lee M. Carroll, Garrett Seymour, John Tuite, Joseph Magown and Frank Bubb, clerk, who returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from "causes unknown to us, probably by some C. B. & Q. train." The witnesses examined were W. L. Kendall and George F. Trout, engineer and fireman respectively on Burlington passenger No. 12, who discovered the remains and reported to the Concord section men.

Burial will take place Monday morning.

Blood Troubles Are Often Hard to Locate

Catarrh, for Example May Be the Cause of Very Serious Illness.

A Slight Trouble Often Brings Serious Blood Disorders.

A chronic cold means something wrong constitutionally. Pimples mean bad blood. Rheumatism means faulty elimination. These and a hundred other symptoms are easily recognized, but where is the trouble? Where is it located? What is wrong with the bodily machine? If you will go into any first class store and get a bottle of S. S. S. you are on the way to getting rid of those conditions that cause sickness and disease. But don't let anyone work off that old trick of something "Just as good."

S. S. S. is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a steady improved condition of the skin, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely the entire system was loaded with impurities.

You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, leprosy, psoriasis, boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write to The Swift Specific Co., 223 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Do not trifle with substitutes. Imitations or any of the horde of "Just as good" Counterfeits of S. S. S.

A FARMER BOY WHO MADE GOOD.

Thirty-three years ago a farmer's lad, named Frank Vanderlip, walked into the railroad shops at Aurora, Ill., and asked for a job. His father was dead; his mother and sisters looked to him for help. He had not had time to learn much out of his books, but the very simplicity of the life about him, the sincerity which his neighbors put into each act of the day's round, had given him an instinctive appreciation of the possibilities of hard work.

He got the job he wanted—apprentice in the machine shops at $3 a week—and then began to look about him. He saw that the best mechanic in the place was earning $3.50 a day and realized that he must do more than train his hands to center shafting and turn lathes. No wonderful vocation flamed up in his soul; he felt no call to correct the world's great evils; he did not even map out any clever plan for a career of power or money acquisition. He felt himself a very ordinary young man, exactly like everybody else of his age about him; he was inspired only by a strong desire to work his way to the top. Today he is at the head of one of the greatest banks in the world, the National City of New York.

Here is the secret of this man's success in the years which have since passed; he was willing to work. In fact, that willingness amounted to a very passion for digging into every problem which came up in the course of duty; and he did a little bit more—he looked for new problems.

The opportunities of the home town, however, seemed to him no longer big enough; after working awhile and picking up stenography in spare hours, he found a position in the office of an investment company in Chicago.

From this work to the charge of the financial columns of the Chicago Tribune was an easy change and again he set himself to prepare for difficulties ahead. He studied banking law, currency and international exchange, and the reporter became an editor whose writings on financial topics aroused attention among the wisest bankers of the city. Someone once asked the old doorkeeper of the Tribune: "Dave, who is that young fellow by whom you set your watch every day?" The grizzled one grunted: "Oh, that's Vanderlip; he's always on time to the dot."

At the end of eight years on the paper, the boy who had begun as a mechanic was noticed by Lyman Gage, the secretary of the treasury, who decided that scribbling was a waste of such talents and took the editor along to Washington.

Looking for trouble and finding a way to get the best of it had become a habit with Vanderlip; and when the Spanish war broke out and a big loan was to be floated by the treasury department, the new assistant to Gage showed such marked capacity for organization that James Stillman, the eminent New York financier, was attracted to the budding financier. After four years at Washington Frank A. Vanderlip became head of the National City bank—Arthur Prill in Leslie's.

Sealed bids will be received by the City of Jacksonville, Ill., at the office of Commissioner of Accounts and Finance at City Hall until 10 a. m., Saturday, May 2, A. D., 1914, for one Water Tube Boiler in accordance with specifications on file at the office of the City Clerk.

All bids should be sealed and marked "Bids for Boiler" and addressed to the undersigned.

Charles R. Knollenberg, Commissioner of Accounts and Finance.

The city reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

COURT NEWS

MR. GEISS WILL CONTEST ELECTION AT MEREDOSIA

Sets Forth That He Received Majority of Votes Cast For Presidency of Village Board.

Edward F. Geiss Saturday instituted a suit to contest the election of Louis F. Berger as president of the village board of Meredosia. J. O. Priest as attorney for Mr. Geiss filed the bill of complaint. In the election held April 21, 1914 Mr. Berger was credited with 216 votes as candidate on the Citizens ticket and Mr. Geiss as candidate on the Progressive ticket was credited with 214 votes. Reuben Ham, Henry Berger and C. H. Williams were the judges of election.

In the bill of complaint Mr. Geiss alleges that the three judges wrongfully counted certain votes for Mr. Berger, and that they certified these votes to the village trustees as a canvassing board. It is alleged that John Turner and Margaret Turner, who were permitted to vote and who cast their ballots in favor of Mr. Berger, were not residents of Meredosia. It is further alleged that Louis F. Berger was permitted to vote and that he is now a resident of Texas. Further it is set forth that John Smith, not a resident of Meredosia, was allowed to vote. Still another allegation is that 200 women were permitted to vote, 119 of whom cast ballots for Mr. Berger and 81 for the petitioner. It is claimed that the law is illegal under which these votes were cast. Summing up the petitioner states that he received properly a majority of 39 at the election instead of his opponent receiving a majority of two as has been maintained. The case will be heard at the May term of the circuit court.

CASE IS APPEALED.

The suit of Mrs. Jennie Barbour against S. H. & W. H. Crum as administrators of the estate of John W. Crum has been appealed to the circuit court, the finding in the county court having been in favor of the estate.

CO. I, LEFT FOR SPRINGFIELD JUST SIXTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Orders Were Received by Capt. Vickery April 25.—Men were on Transport Two Nights.

Sixteen years ago this morning, at 9:02 o'clock via the Wabash, Co. I, Illinois National Guards commanded by Capt. E. C. Vickery, left Jacksonville for Springfield on a call for service in the Spanish-American war. The orders to report were received on April 25, 1898. The Morgan Cadet Veterans acted as an escort to the train.

The National Guard was mustered into the United States service in Springfield on May 5, 1898, and left two or three days later for Chickamauga Park and from that place went to Newport News, Va. They were ordered to embark on the Transport Ogdan, but after two nights on the ship were ordered to Lexington, Tenn., then to Springfield and returned home.

L. P. Owen, now captain of Co. B., and Samuel C. Hunt, first lieutenant of the local company, are the only two men in the local company who went with Co. I. Sergeant L. P. Burke of Co. B., was in the service in the Spanish-American war and was in Porto Rico, but was with the Ninth Regiment.

The roster of Co. I, when it returned from service follows:

Captain—E. C. Vickery.
First Lieutenant—J. H. McDonnell.
Second Lieutenant—Samuel Hunt.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Ed. C. McClure of Beardstown who has been advance man this season for Miller Bros. Carnival Company, is now at his home there suffering from a sprained ankle. He is able to get around but it will be some time before he has full use of his foot. Recently he was watching a display of fireworks in East St. Louis. An aerial bomb exploded in such a way that a number of the spectators were thrown to the ground and cut and bruised. There was a veritable stampede in the crowd after the accident.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC.

The class in public school methods went to Springfield to inspect the methods used in the schools of that city.

Mrs. Jess of Springfield was a visitor at the college this week.

Miss Lucile Olinger, a pupil of Associate Director Swarthout, gave a very pleasing recital of piano music Thursday afternoon. The next of the Senior recitals will be one of violin music, and will occur Thursday next, April 30th, at 4:15 p. m., in Music hall. It will be given by Miss Helen Harrison, a pupil of Director Swarthout. The public is invited.

The Madrigal club, which is under the direction of Miss McKay, has prepared a very interesting program. This will be given Monday evening next in Music hall at 8 p. m. The program as arranged consists of a duet, trio and quintet, in addition to a number of part songs and a more pretentious one from the modern French school of composition, "The Legend of Miana," by de Fontenailles. This is a complimentary concert, to which the public is invited.

GIVES LECTURE IN NEW CHURCH

Dr. W. J. Davidson of Evanston speaks on "The Call of the Twentieth Century" at Alexander.

"The Call of the Twentieth Century" was the title of an excellent lecture given in the new Methodist Episcopal church in Alexander Saturday night by Dr. W. J. Davidson of Evanston, who is to have charge of the dedicatory exercises at the church today. The lecture was heard by a large audience.

Dr. Davidson told of the achievements of the first, fourth, ninth, fifteenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and compared them with the present century, giving his reasons for rather living at the present time than during any of the preceding centuries. He set forth that the young man of the Twentieth century should have a vision, an aim in life and then go after it, with a strong heart and a trained mind. In a plea to young men for a college education he said that in his opinion four years of high school and four years of college were merely a beginning and that all young men should have both.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT ACCEPTS FOREIGN OFFER

The three diplomats met tonight after receiving the American government's reply to their offer. While not discussing it it is understood they will endeavor to compose the entire Mexican situation in order to restore constitutional government in Mexico.

Those officials who have studied Huerta's personality as it has been revealed to them and his stubborn indifference to any plan which would eliminate him from the head of the Mexico City government were skeptical of the success of the peace plan. Also those officials who know of Carranza's absolute unwillingness in any way to compromise with Huerta, pointed to the undertaking as extremely difficult should it extend beyond the adjustment of the Tampico incident and the present critical relations between the United States and the Huerta authorities.

Might Be Willing to Yield.

On the other hand, the belief was expressed in diplomatic circles that Huerta might be willing to yield upon being convinced by the three principal nations of South America of the true solution—the possibility of a foreign war and international complications generally not only with the United States but with South American countries who might support the Washington government. While administration officers discussed the peace offer freely and many did not believe it would produce results, the fact that the American government had favorably received the good offices of three Latin nations was regarded as of great importance in the future to the relations of the Pan-American republics to each other. Some officials expressed the view also that even though armed intervention on an extensive scale became necessary, the United States would have completed its record for a settlement of the Mexican difficulties through peaceful means. While there was much discussion in congressional circles of the necessity for a more drastic and aggressive course in dealing with Huerta, this preceded the announcement tonight of the peace offer. It was evident from the informal discussion today that congress is on the brink of a general debate on a war declaration. Whether or not the effort of the South American countries to settle the difficulty through diplomacy would have any effect in forestalling such a debate was not known tonight.

MRS. MARY E. ROGERS DIES AFTER PROTRACTED ILLNESS

Passed Away at Her Late Residence on Webster Avenue Saturday Evening.—Burial will take place at her Former Home in Waverly.

Mrs. Mary E. Rogers, who has been ill for several months at her late residence, 251 Webster avenue, died Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, at the age of 69 years and 21 days. She was the daughter of J. H. Goldsmith and her mother was a daughter of Rev. John C. Hamilton, a well known pioneer minister of the Methodist Episcopal church. She was born at Waverly April 4, 1845. She married William R. Rogers, the ceremony taking place in Jacksonville. Mr. Rogers has been dead for 42 years.

The children surviving are: Mrs. Ada Rantz and Sheriff W. B. Rogers, of Jacksonville, and Mrs. May Simons wife of Rev. T. J. Simons, of Bluffton, Indiana. She also leaves two sisters, Miss Ella S. Goldsmith, of Chicago, and Mrs. Joseph Ainsworth of Havana, Mrs. Rantz, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rogers and son Francis and Mrs. Goldsmith were present when the end came.

The Rogers family has made Waverly their residence until two years ago when she came to Jacksonville to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Rantz. Mrs. Rogers became ill last Thanksgiving, with neuritis, and her many months of illness have been marked with intense suffering. Although spending days in pain she ever displayed a bravery and determination to get well. Even up till the last few days she thought that health might be hers once more. She had put much into her life and she was rejoicing in the coming of the beautiful spring and the time when she might once more be out in God's great world and enjoy its beauties and the companionship of her many friends.

While Mrs. Rogers enjoyed her friends and found delight in doing for them, she especially found great comfort in her children. Being bereft of her husband at an early time in their married life she turned her attention to her family and her devotion was that of a true mother. Well might it be said of her "that she looked well to the ways of her household, and ate not the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and called her blessed. Many daughters have done virtuously but thou excellest them all." Mrs. Rogers was a member of the Congregational church and her sincere and true christian spirit was manifested in every deed she performed and kind word spoken. And while Mrs. Rogers' devotion to her family was great, likewise the devotion of the family to the mother was unusual, and she never wanted for anything. In her months of suffering she was given every loving and tender administration.

Brief funeral services will be held from the residence at a time to be later used later and more extended services will be held from the Congregational church in Waverly, with interment in the Waverly cemetery.

Misses Lucy Curtis and Helen Pyatt entertained the Junior society of the Central Christian church at their home, 329 West North Street, Saturday afternoon at a farewell party for Ruth, Quora, John and Virginia Darsie, who are soon to leave the city with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Darsie. Miss Ruth has been a former president of the society and she was given a souvenir spoon. The afternoon was spent in playing games. Misses Lois Haydon and Elie Pyatt being in charge and during the time suitable refreshments were served.

Forty couples were present at the Illinois college gymnasium Saturday evening to enjoy the dance given under the auspices of the social committee. Those from out of the city were Earl Epler of Beardstown, Miss Ruth Childs of Springfield and Miss Louise Gates, who is teaching school this term at Illinois. Randall's orchestra furnished the music and Prof. and Mrs. Rollin H. Tanner and Prof. and Mrs. J. G. Ames were the chaperones.
